FOREWORD

At the meeting of the Nicholas Gibbs Historical Society on June 23, 1972, the following resolution was discussed and passed unanimously by the members of the Society:

Be it resolved that the following motion be passed by the general membership of the Nicholas Gibbs Historical Soceity, and that it be spread upon the official minutes of this organization.

WHEREAS Dr. Ralph Gibbs Nichols was the leading force in founding the Nicholas Gibbs Historical Society;

WHEREAS Dr. Nichols researched the Gibbs family tirelessly over a period of many years, and;

WHEREAS Dr. Nichols fostered and promoted the idea of compiling a history of the Gibbs [redacted]

WHEREAS Dr. Nichols served as the first president of this organization, continuing in this position until his death, and;

WHEREAS Dr. Nichols served as an inspiration toward the expansion and continuation of the Nicholas Gibbs Historical Society, Now, therefore be it resolved that the Nicholas Gibbs Historical Society proceed with the plans for compiling the history of Nicholas Gibbs, his ancestors and his descendants, and that this compilation be printed and bound and that it be dedicated to the memory of Dr. Ralph Gibbs Nichols.

In June 1973, we issued one number of the Gibbs Magazine hoping thereby to stimulate interest in the Society, to stimulate discussion, and to accelerate the collection of information about the Gibbs clan and all its connections. We were prevented by circumstances from following that number with others, but that single issue has succeeded beyond our expectations. We now have a tremendous amount of material for this book, though there are some gaps in our knowledge.

Meanwhile, the Society under the leadership of Miss Emma Dunn has elected to go ahead with publication of what we have, trying to get it out for the Bicentennial of our country. What gaps there are must necessarily be filled in by issues of the Gibbs Magazine to appear later. We have heard from far-flung members of the Gibbs family in Washington, California, and Oregon, as well as nearer ones in Kentucky and Illinois and all over the South and East. The unmarked grave of one descendant was found during construction of a bridge near Cody, Wyoming, along the right of way of the old Oregon Trail, while we were researching the family.

We have also heard from a number of the descendants of Abraham Gibbs, brother of Nicholas, many of whom are settled in North and South Carolina. It was a temptation to include information about them in our compilation, but the sheer magnitude of the task we already had dissuaded us from doing do. Perhaps we can include them at a later date.

The committee in charge of the collection of data and publication of the book includes Emma Dunn, W. C. Sharp, Jr., John Rice Irwin, Mrs. Norman (Sonja) Collins, Mrs. Ralph Nichols, Mrs. Florence Mabe, Mrs. J. R. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Pray. A very large amount of material has been collected by Mrs. Gordon (Virginia) Nelson, the late Murphy U. Snoderly, and Mrs. Sonja Collins, who has been indefatigable in corresponding with dozens, if not hundreds, of her relatives.

This book is dedicated to the memory of
Dr. Ralph Gibbs Nichols
founder and first President of this Society.
Without his vision, inspiration, and dedication, neither the Society nor this book would have come to pass.

Dr. Ralph Gibbs Nichols

General Notes: WILLIAM AND CATHARINE GRAVES SHARP of Claiborn e County, Tennessee

The Annals of Southwest Virginia by Lewis Preston Summers, page 932, contain a record o f the sale of 299 acres of land located in Clover Bottom, on Sinking Creek, Montgomery County , for 200 pounds, on July 3, 1798, by William Sharp and Cautherana (Catherine), his wife, to John Bowen. Upon examination of the records at Christiansburg, Virginia, the writer found that this property was surveyed May 19, 1789, and joined land of John Lucas (?). This deed of bargain and sale was acknowledged in the July Court 1798, "The said wife being first privily examined as the Law directs, and ordered to be recorded."

The name of William Sharp first appeared on the personal tax records of Montgomery County, Va., in 1790, he having made a return on June 27, 1790, on 5 horses. In 1791, he was taxed on 184 acres of land (Montgomery County, Va. Land Book, State Library, Richmond, Va.) and his name appeared on the personal tax records through 1795, when he was taxed on 6 horses. ~~Judging from the birth dates and birth places of his children, it was after the sale of his Virginia property in 1798 that William~~ Sharp moved with his family to Claiborne County , Tenn., where he remained until his death in 1840.
By deed dated May 11, 1803, William Sharp purchased from Francis Mayberry a tract of land in Powells Valley joining end of lot A of Henderson and Company.(Claiborne County, Tenn. Deed Book A, p. 80) In 1809 he was granted 100 acres of land by the State of Tennessee-No. 682 (Claiborne County, Tenn. Deed Book D, P. 169) as follows: "Know ye that in consideration of an entry made in the office of the surveyor of the 5th district No. 320 dated Oct. 11, 1809 and founded on certificate No. 53 there is granted by the State unto William Sharp 100 acres lying in the county of Claiborne in the District of Hamilton including the place where said William now lives beginning at the Mayberry line..."

Signed: Willie Blount

From records belonging to descendants of William and Catherine Sharp, it has been learned that William's wife was Catherine Graves, and that she was a daughter of Boston and Sarah Efland Graves. Among Boston's pension papers there was a list of his children, and one of his daughters was Catherine Sharp. It is likely that William and Catherine were married in Montgomery County about the date of survey of his property in that county--May 1789--as their oldest child, Sarah, was born in Virginia in 1790.
According to the records of Roy Stockwell, a descendant of the Graves and Sharps, William Sharp was a nephew of Henry ~~Sharp, who married Barbara Graves, sister of Boston, and he had brothers named John, George, and Aaron. The 1830 census~~ for Claiborne County lists William Sharp, Sr., age between 60-70 (born between 1760-70) and his wife, between 50-60 (b.1770-1780). Also appearing in the same census was a George Sharp, Sr., between 70-80. Could he have been the George who was in Montgomery County with Henry, John and William Sharp, and whose wife was named Elizabeth? And was perhaps William's brother?

Noted events in her life were:

- Census: 1830, Claiborne County, Tennessee.

Catherine married William Sharp, son of John George Sharp and Anna Marie Loy, in 1789 in Virginia. William was born in 1760 in Virginia and died on 11 Mar 1840 in Claiborne County, Tennessee at age 80.

General Notes: William Sharp, Sr., died between Mar. 11, 1840, the date of his will, and Mar. 20, 1840 , when there was a sale of his personal property. (Records of Mrs. Mildred Warren, Smachover , Arkansas, great granddaughter of John G. Sharp.) Attending this sale were William Sharp, Christian Sharp, Henry Sharp, John Parker, and Isaac Sharp. In his will, William bequeathed to his wife Catherine...and "Whereas I have previously entered to my sons Henry and William Sharp a portion of my land I wish them to remain where now they are..I nominate and appoint Boston Graves and Christian Sharp my executors." Boston Graves was his son in law.

There is a William Sharp on tax list in Anderson county, Tennessee, 1805.

+ 228 F xi. Catherine Sharp .

127. Daniel Graves was born in 1772 in Orange County, North Carolina and died on 7 Oct 1838 in Knox County, Tennessee at age 66.

General Notes: The Exact date of Daniel Graves death was found in an inventory of his personal estate, which was October 7, 1838, and was recorded in Knox County. Before his death, Daniel made a deed to William and Daniel Graves, consideration $1 to 3,000 acres at a 5,000 acre court granted to Robert Harper, by him to Hugh Williams, by him to Wiley Blount, by him to Pleasant M. Miller by him to myself...Hansard line to Bull Run...to keep me and my wife Sophia a sufficient supply of all necessities of life to support agreeable to our usual mode of life, then all balance of profits of said acres authorized to apply to their own use...dated July 22, 1838 .

/s/Daniel Graves Registered Sept 4, 1838

Attest: George Graves, Henry Graves, William Graves, Boston Graves, Wm. P. Harbison

The writer has no knowledge as to the original grantees to tracts of land on the head waters of Little Flat Creek. Most of them had served in the Continental Armies of North Carolina or Virginia during the Revolutionary War. Daniel Graves and his father Boston (Sebastian) Graves (Graff) were in the area May 23, 1797. It is believed they came to Tennessee from Montgomery County, Virginia. They had earlier lived in Orange County, North Carolina. Since this recorder (Scharmal Veronica Triesch Conley) is a descendant of both Daniel and Boston Graves much of this compilation will relate to them and their descendants. On May 23, 1797, Daniel Graves bought 200 acres of land from John Beard. The land was located in the head waters area of Little Flat Creek, first known as Gravesville and later Graveston. The land is recorded in Book C-1, pg. 131, Knox County, Tennessee. "This Indenture made this twenty third of May in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven between John Beard of the County of Lincoln and State of Kentucky of the one part and Daniel Graves of the County of Knox and State of Tennessee of the other part. Witnessed that the said John Beard for and in consideration of the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds ($250.00) to him in hand paid the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged hath and by these presents doth grant, bargain, sell, alien, enfeoff, and confirm unto the Said Daniel Graves his heirs and assigns forever a certain tract or parcel of land containing two hundred acres, lying and being in the County of Knox on the north side of Holston River-Beginning at a pine, thence south forty east eighty poles (1320 ft) thence north forty five degrees east seventy six poles (1254 ft) to a black oak; thence north thirteen degrees west two hundred and forty five poles (4042.5 ft) line C to D on the Graveston area map, to a Spanish oak; thence south forty seven degrees west one hundred and ninety poles (1963.5 ft), to a pine; thence south forty nine degrees east (west) one hundred poles (1650 ft.), to a hickory; thence south thirty five degrees west forty poles (660 ft.), to a stake; thence west twenty two poles (363 ft.) to a cedar by the ford of the creek; (Note: the cedar at the ford of the creek. The 123 acre tract of George Graves has a corner on the cedar at the ford) thence south fifty four degrees east seventy poles (1155 ft.), to a stake near the fence; thence south forty five west fifty poles (825 ft.), to______; thence south forty four degrees east fifty five poles (907 ft) line_____ to the beginning.

Witness: Billy Williams, John Beard

On the same date as the above deed, May 23, 1797, Daniel Graves bought 257 acres on Little Flat Creek from John Beard, Book C-1, Pg. 130.

April 23, 1798, Daniel Graves sold Boston Graves the 257 acres he had bought from John Beard eleven months earlier. The deed was witnessed by William Garrett and Jonathan Blevins.

Noted events in his life were:

- Census: 1830, Knox County, Tennessee.

Daniel married Sophia Catherine Clapp, daughter of John Ludwig Clapp Jr and Sophia Catherine Albright "Sophia", in 1795 in Montgomery County, Virginia. Sophia was born on 12 Oct 1780 in Guilford County, North Carolina and died in 1855 in Knox County, Tennessee at age 75.

JOHN GRAVES

General Notes: Source: Graves Family Association, Wrentham, Ma.
John Graves is buried at the Graves cemetery on Jim Wolfe Road close to the town of Graveston in Knox County, Tennessee. There is a tombstone beside John Graves and Mary Trout Graves in the Graves Cemetery that reads: E.J. Graves, aged 4 y 7mo, died Aug 14 1854. Could this be a child of John and Mary Graves?? The grave markers were rocks with names, initials and dates carved into them. Don & Scharmal Conley took photo of this stone in 1996.

John married Mary Trout on 22 Dec 1801 in Knox County, Tennessee. Mary was born about 1782 in Virginia, died on 28 Mar 1865 in Graveston, Knox County, Tennessee about age 83, and was buried in Graves Cemetery, Graveston, Knox County, Tennessee.

General Notes: Mary Trout Graves wife of John Graves is buried in the Graves Cemetery on Jim Wolf road 1/4 mile south of Tazwell Pike. The cemetery is located about 200 yards behind the house of the Webster Family. This cemetery is east of the town of Graveston. Don & Scharmal Conley took photo of tombstone. (1996)
Mary Trout is the sister of George Trout that married Mary Graves

Children from this marriage were:

+ 251 F i. Catherine Graves was born on 30 Sep 1802.

+ 258 M viii. James Graves was born about 1821 and died in 1904 about age 83.

+ 259 M ix. Andrew Graves was born on 29 Dec 1823.

131. Peter Graves was born on 15 Sep 1783 in Montgomery County, Virginia and died on 2 Feb 1860 in Bainbridge, Putnam County, Indiana at age 76.

General Notes: On tax lists for Anderson, Campbell, Claiborne, Counties of Tennessee 1800-1820 there is a Peter Graves.

Boston Graves' son Peter was born Sept 15, 1783, in Virginia, and on Apr. 4, 1806, married Jane Milton in Knox County, Tennessee. Jane was born June 8, 1784, and died in Indiana May 11, 1853. Peter served as a Sergeant in the War of 1812 under Capt. John Sharp, Co l. Booth's 5th Regiment, East Tennessee Militia, and was drafted in Knox County, Tennessee, Nov 13, 1814 for 6 months. He continued in service for 5 months and 5 days and was discharged at Knoxville May 18, 1815. He applied for bounty land Nov. 18, 1850, and received 80 acres under a law passed Sept. 28, 1850. He received another 80 acres under a law passed in 1855 . When he applied for bounty land, he was a resident of Putnam County, Indiana, giving his age as 67. He moved to Indiana about 1823. He was a farmer and a baptist.

Peter married Jane Milton on 30 Apr 1806 in Knox County, Tennessee. Jane was born on 8 Jun 1784 in Virginia and died on 11 May 1853 in Indiana at age 68.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 260 F i. Rachel Graves was born in 1811 in Tennessee.

+ 261 F ii. Matilda Graves was born in 1812 in Tennessee.

+ 262 M iii. Elihu Graves was born in 1818 in Tennessee and died in Litchfield, Montgomery County, Illinois.

+ 263 F iv. Eliza Graves was born in 1818 in Tennessee.

+ 264 F v. Cynthia Graves was born on 28 Feb 1821 in Tennessee and died on 4 Jun 1854 at age 33.

+ 265 F vi. Anna Graves was born in 1823 in Indiana and died on 5 Oct 1890 at age 67.

+ 266 F vii. Julia Ann Graves was born in Jul 1827 in Putnam County, Indiana and died in Oct 1827.

132. George Graves was born about 1785 in North Carolina and died on 25 Jun 1861 about age 76.

General Notes: George, son of Boston Graves, was born about 1785 in North Carolina. On Mar. 17, 1809, he married Ann Rutherford, born about 1791 in Virginia. During his lifetime he owned and operated a grist mill at Graveston, Union County, Tennessee. He was an Acting Justice of Peace in Knox County.

George and Ann Rutherford had no children.

His will dated 2 May 1859, recorded in Estate Book 13, pg. 373, was proved and admitted 29 Oc t 1860, indicating he died slightly earlier in 1860. He married Ann Rutherford daughter of Absalom and Mary Rutherford, apparently in 1809. He bought the marriage license on 17 Mar 1809 in Knox County, Tennessee. According to the 1850 census for Knox County, Tennessee, George was engaged in a variety of businesses, including a grist mill, a sawmill, and perhaps even the distilling of whiskey. Although Roy Stockwell said George and Ann had no children, his will indicates he had at least three.

Noted events in his life were:

- Census: 1850, Knox County, Tennessee.

George married Ann Rutherford, daughter of Absalom Rutherford and Mary McBride, on 17 Mar 1809 in Knox County, Tennessee. Ann was born on 7 Dec 1791 in Virginia and died in 1869 at age 78.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 267 F i. Maria Graves

+ 268 F ii. Eleanor Graves

+ 269 U iii. Ragan Graves

133. Henry Graves was born on 21 May 1788 in North Carolina and died on 6 Feb 1870 in Knox County, Tennessee at age 81.

General Notes: Henry Graves might have been born in Montgomery County, Virginia.

Henry married Elizabeth "Betsy" Ann Grills, daughter of Elliott Grills and Mary Cox "Polly", on 1 Sep 1814 in Knox County, Tennessee. Elizabeth was born on 1 Feb 1792 and died on 14 Jun 1850 in Knox County, Tennessee at age 58. Another name for Elizabeth was Betsy.

Children from this marriage were:

+ 270 M i. William Carroll Graves was born on 13 Aug 1815 in Tennessee and died on 22 Jun 1896 in Morristown, Tennessee at age 80.

+ 271 M ii. Jefferson Monroe Graves was born on 16 Nov 1817.

+ 272 M iii. Elliot Reed Graves was born on 22 Feb 1820 in Malvern, Mills County, Iowa and died on 10 Mar 1912 in Malvern, Mills County, Iowa at age 92.

+ 273 F iv. Mary Ann Sophia Graves was born on 15 Jun 1823.

+ 274 F v. Sarah Ellen Graves was born on 7 Mar 1827.

+ 275 M vi. Henry Oscar Graves was born on 1 Jul 1830.

+ 276 M vii. John Ganaway Graves was born on 17 Jun 1833 and died on 30 Oct 1867 at age 34.

+ 277 F viii. Graves was born on 22 Dec 1836 and died on 1 Jan 1867 at age 30.

134. David Graves was born about 1790 in Orange County, North Carolina and died on 23 Aug 1846 in Marian, Crittenden County, Kentucky about age 56.

General Notes: David Graves, son of Boston Graves, was married in Knox County, Tenn., on Sept. 14, 1817, to Mary Holloway, born about 1795. The following is a letter to George W. Gibbs dated March 20, 1846 from William Gibbs McAdoo From the first issue of The Gibbs Magazine, published by The Nicholas Gibbs Historical Society. Colin P. McKinney Chancellor Olin P. McKinney Chancellor Geo. A. Gibbs, Clerk & Master The Clerk and Master of the Chancery Court of Obion County Union City, Tenn.

Clinton, E. Te. Friday, March 20th, 1846

Dear Uncle; Your letter of Jan'y 16th reached me in the full tumult of business which marks the close of legislative session. An illness which seized me immediately after adjournment and detained me three weeks in the vicinity of Nashville, also obliterated from my memory the fact of your having requested of me an immediate reply to yours, or at least a note acknowledging its receipt. When I reached home two weeks since and read your letter again, I thought it would occasion but little more delay to obtain the information you desired before I should write. I owe you this apology for not not having written you promptly on the receipt of yours as you requested.

I returned last night from a tour among our relatives. I obtained from Daniel Gibbs, in Knox County a German manuscript in pamphlet form containing in your father's handwriting a record of his own birth, birthplace, etc. and of the births of his children. It also contains a record of the birth of a 'Mary Gibbs' in 1745, who may have been his sister, as Aunt Snodderly and Uncle Daniel Gibbs both remember hearing his speak of having two sisters, Mary and Catherine; or she may have been his wife, as I believe your mother's name was Mary. His own name appears written in the manuscript several times, one or twice in English characters. The date of his birth is '29th of September, 1733. The place, as made out by my German translator (not a very efficient one, by the way) was the village of Wallruth in the town of Krumbach; and these are in the Dutchy of Baden, my translator informs me, who is himself from Baden. Part of the manuscript is illegible, but might be revived by chemical process. I shall either transmit it to you by mail along with this letter; or if I shall visit Nashville soon, as I expect, I may take it with me and endeavor to find some more certain method for its transmission. I would suggest to you to have it read by someone completely master of the German language. It is the only manuscript left of your father's papers which would be of any service to you. The greater portion of his papers passed into the possession of my father, John Gibbs; and my grandmother, (yet living) remembers of their having been destroyed and gradually scattered.

I can hear nothing of his Bible.

The preceding answers your first inquiry -- and last also.

The name of your Grandfather (your second inquiry) was Nicholas. Daniel Gibbs remembers of hearing him frequently saying of hearing your father say, -- I mean -- that he was named after his father; though your father's name appears once written in the German manuscript as John Nicholas Gibbs. Your father spoke often as having been reared on the river Rhine, and of coming away clandestinely at the age of fourteen on account of being offended in some way at his father.

I learn, in reply to your third inquiry, that yAour father had two brothers; one named Abraham, who lived in Fredericktown, Maryland, and whose descendants are now residents of Baltimore and with whom I believe you are acquainted; the other named Peter who is said to have died in Germany, perhaps prior to the departure of your father. I have already mentioned that the latter spoke of having two sisters also -- Catherine and Mary. Mr. Thomas Miller, of Knoxville, informs me that his brother residing in Baltimore, married a daughter of Abraham Gibbs and that Mrs. Miller has in her possession her father's Bible. Perhaps you could derive from it some information that would be of service to you.

In relation to forewarding the manuscript to you, will it not be better for me to retain it here at present, if any process of authentication be necessary? This idea occurs to me at the moment and I believe I shall keep it until I hear from you again. Your Aunts Graves and Sharp (sisters to your mother) to whom you refer me for information, are both dead.

I gleaned many little incidents in the history of our family from conversations with the other members of it; but none I now think of could, I imagine, avail you anything. I will take great pleasure in furnishing you any additional information you may desire and I can obtain.

I regret your inability to visit Nashville during our long unprofitable session there. I certainly expected you until I received your letter. I also hoped to have seen you and inquired for you at the Memphis Convention. If convenient, please remember me kindly to Mr, Bullock, your able and intelligent Representative in the last Legislature. Be kind enough to write me immediately if you please. Will you or your son go to Germany? Nothing but a lack of means deters me from visiting you and crossing the Atlantic with you -- not so much the prospect of pecuniary advantage as through a desire to look on the land from whence my fathers came.
Believe me most affectionately yours,

Wm. G. McAd00

230. Henry Graves was born on 2 Sep 1796 in Knoxville, Knox County, Tennessee, died on 29 Nov 1876 in Jersey County, Illinois at age 80, and was buried in Witt Cemetery, Greene County, Illinois.

General Notes: The wife of Daniel Graves was Sophia Clapp. Their son Henry was born Sept. 2, 1796, Knox County, Tennessee. On July 15, 1819, he married Elizabeth Miller, born Apr 1, 1799 (Said to have been a twin of Jacob Miller) in Tennessee, daughter of John "Raccoon" Miller. The marriage date of Henry Graves to Elizabeth Miller was given as July 5, 1819 (license), but in his application for a pension for service in the War of 1812, Henry gave his marriage date as July 15, which no doubt was correct.
When Henry Graves applied for a pension on March 11, 1871, he was a resident of Jersey County, Illinois - Jerseyville Precinct. He gave his age as 74 and stated that he enlisted in Capt. Jones' Company, 39th Regiment, Williams Brigade, "Regulars" division, at Knoxville, Tenn ., in November 1814 and was discharged at Fort Hawkins, Georgia, in November 1815. At the time of his enlistment his personal description was 5'8"; blue eyes, dark hair; fair complexion ; age 18; farmer, born in Knox County and was enlisted Nov 15, 1814, by Ens. A. Dearing for 5 years. In his military papers he was referred to as "Musician" and in an affidavit made by him on Aug 18, 1843--then a resident of Anderson County, Tenn.--he stated that he was a Drummer in the company commanded by Capt. Jones of the 39th U.S. Infantry.
In his pension application, Henry stated that he was married; that his wife's name was Elizabeth Miller and that they were married in Knox County, Tenn., on the 15th day of July 1819 . He also stated that his post office was 4 miles northeast of Kane, Greene County, Ill. His application was attested by John J. Ballard, a son in law, who had married Henry's daughter Livana in Knox County, Tenn., Mar. 18, 1851. Henry was paid a pension of $8 per month to Sept. 4, 1876, when he was dropped. According to the records of descendants, Henry died Nov. 29 , 1876, in Jersey County, and his wife--Elizabeth Miller Graves--died Oct 15, 1870 and both were buried in a small family plot in Greene County, Ill. (Source: Pension Record of Henry Graves - U.S. Army 39th Regiment, Regular Army, SC 10,116 - National Archives, Washington, D.C.)

was born on 9 Feb 1820 in Knox County, Tennessee, died on 16 Sep 1895 in Knox County, Tennessee at age 75, and was buried in Little Flat Creek Cemetery, Corryton, Tennessee.

General Notes: Nancy stayed at home while her husband James and son Linville fought in the Civil War. She lived in the old Graves home on Tazwell Pike during the war with just her children. Nancy would barricade the doors and windows at night for protection from marauding soldiers. The food, such as meal, flour and meat, was hidden under a loose board in the kitchen floor.

> William W. Graves, deceased was born in Knox County, East Tennessee, July 19, 1818, was married to Mahala P. Graves, October 2nd. 1837, she being born in the same county and state , September 22, 1821. They, with six children, moved by wagon to Mills County, Ia., in the autumn of 1852. They arrived at Elmwood December 2nd, 1852. From Elmwood they moved to Missouri September, 1858, thence to Plattsmouth in the spring of 1863. He resided in Nebraska since that date until the time of his death--April 6, 1895. The deceased has always been esteemed a worthy citizen wherever he has lived. He and his wife joined the Baptist Church in 1844, lived in that faith until they came west. Churches being scarce in those days, they did not attach themselves to any church until 1872, when he joined the Christian Church in which he has lived a faithful life ever since and died in the triumphs of a living faith. He called the ten living children to his bed instantly before he departed, and gave them good advice. After living a married life fifty-eight years, he dies leaving his wife and ten children- two preceded him to the better world. The following are the names, residence and ages of the children: Mrs. Harriett E. Miller, Glenwood Ia. Born in Tennessee November 22, 1838; Alex H . Graves, Rock Bluffs, Neb. MRS. MAHALA P. GRAVES NINETY-FIVE YEARS OLD
This Grand Old Pioneer Will celebrate Her Ninety-fifth Anniversary Tuesday, September 24th

From Friday's Daily
One of the grand old ladies in Cass county is Mrs. Mahala P. GRAVES, or as she is more affectionately known to hundreds through this section of Cass county , "Grandma"
Graves . This worthy lady will, on September 24th, celebrate her ninety-fifth birthday, and although almost touching the century mark, she is still bright and keen in her mind as one fifty years of age. A few weeks ago, she had the misfortune to fall at her home and fracture her wrist, which laid her up for some time, but she has practically recovered from this and with the care of her daughter, Mrs. Mary E. BURNETT, is now feeling in her accustomed good health.
Mrs. Graves has lived to be the head of five generations and this honor is one that comes to but few in a lifetime, and of her twelve children, seven are living; forty-seven grandchildren, forty living; thirty-eight great grandchildren, thirty-six living, and three great-great grandchildren, two of whom are living.
Mrs. Graves was born at Knoxville, Knox county , Tennessee on September 24, 1820. She made her home in that section until 1853, and was married in that county to William W. Graves on October 2, 1837, who had been born and reared in that same locality, being born there July 19, 1818. In 1853, the husband and wife, with their little family, decided that greater opportunities awaited them in the west, and accordingly moved to mills county Iowa , and pre-empted a quarter section of land three miles east of Glenwood , but after a few years decided to come to Nebraska , and in 1864, arrived at Rock Bluffs , then a flourishing little city, and located there, where they have resided since that time and where the husband and father passed away to the Better Land on October 6, 1895.
The lifetime of Mrs. Graves embraces a wonderful change in the life of the nation and of the west, where she has for so many years made her home. Since her arrival at an age of the appreciation of things she has lived to see three wars, the Mexican, the great conflict between the states of the union, and the Spanish -American war; twenty-three presidents have presided over the destinies of the nation since her birth. She has seen in the evolution of time the oxcart displaced by the giant locomotives of the present day, the wagon and carriage passed by the automobile, and now the air craft, the possibility of which would have seemed impossible in the days of her girlhood. She has eaten her food prepared in the old-fashioned fireplace from a fire made with flint and steel and lived to see electricity serve as the means of cooking. She has lived to see rulers and countries change in the melting pot of time, and still hopes to be spared to see other of the great wonders that the twentieth century will bring with it.

The children of this grand woman are as follows: Mrs. Harriet MILLER , Glenwood , Ia.; Alexander H. GRAVES, Murray , Neb.' Calvin M. GRAVES, Wapeto, Wash.; Oriana J. Graves, who died in mills county , Iowa , in 1865; Elbert Lawson Graves , North Yakima, Wash.; Andrew J. GRAVES, attorney at law, who died at Plattsmouth, Neb., in 1906; Julian D. GRAVES, Peru, Neb.; Alvin Shered Graves , New York City; Mrs. Ellen O. LACEY, who died at Omaha in 1900; Charles L. GRAVES, Union, Neb.; Mrs. Mary BURNETT , Rock Bluffs, who is caring for her mother at present.

Conley's have Death Certificate of Mahala Pearl Graves and it says her father was Henry Graves, that she was born in Tennessee, her father born in Virginia (census says he was born in Tennessee), Her mother's birth place unknown. She died of Pluro Pneumonia and face cancer. The informant on the death certificate is J. D. Graves.

Note that Mahala Pearl Graves has the same maiden name as her husband. They are lst cousins , 1 generation removed.

DEATH OF AN AGED CASS COUNTY LADY

From Thursday's daily. - Last evening at the home of J.D. Graves, at Peru, Nebraska, occurred the death of Mrs. Mahala P. Graves or "Grandma" Graves, as she was better known to the old neighbors and friends in Cass County. This venerable lady whose years of life lacked but two brief years of a full century, is one of the last of the pioneers who assisted in making this community what it is today, as she with her husband came here at a very early day and by hard work and perseverance made a home for the family along the bluffs of the mighty Missouri near the old town of Rock Bluffs, and the old homestead still stands as a monument to the worthy pioneer couple the last of whom has now answered the summons of the Master to her last long rest.
In the past few years Mrs. Graves has been failing in health and has made her home with her son, J.D. Graves at Peru, and just a short time ago enjoyed the privilege of having the children gather with her in what destined to be the last reunion of the family upon earth.
Mrs Mahala P. Graves was born in Knox County, East Tennessee, September 24, 1821, and was married in that state to William W. Graves on October 2, 1837. Mr. and Mrs. Graves removed from Tennessee to Iowa in 1852, pre-empting a quarter section of land three miles east of Glenwood. Here the family resided until 1864, when they moved to the new state of Nebraska, and settled near the then flourishing town of Rock Bluffs. Here they saw the community in which they lived pass from a flourishing community of several hundred population to a mere collection of empty stores, as monuments of past granduer; the country which at the time of their coming was but scarcely known aside from the few settlements along the river grow into one of the greatest agricultural empires of the world. It was given this venerable lady to see three times the nation take up the gage of battle and two of these conflicts were the greatest that the world has ever known, the great strive of state against nation and of the greatest republic of the world against the greatest empire of the world.
It is wonderful to contemplate the changes that this worthy lady has seen develop during her years of life and fitting that as the peace long prayed for came to the world her spirit should pass on giving her the peace and calm that comes at the close of her life. The Grave s family resided at Rock Bluffs up until a few years ago and there on October 6, 1895, the husband and father was called home to rest. Since the death of the husband, Mrs Graves has resided with the children. Twelve children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Graves as follows: A.J. Graves. deceased; J.D. Graves, Peru, Neb., Mrs Harriett Miller, Glenwood, Ia., A.N. Graves, Murra y, Neb., C.M. Graves and E.L. Graves, North Yakima, Washington, Mary E. Burnett, Rock Bluffs ; A.S. Graves, Brooklyn, N.Y., Charles L. Graves, Union, Nebraska, Mrs. Ellen O. Lacy, Omaha , deceased, one child died in infancy and Orlena Graves died in Cass County in 1865, aged 19 years. Funeral announcement of this venerable pioneer will be made later.

MRS. MAHALA P. GRAVES NINETY-FIVE YEARS OLD
This Grand Old Pioneer Will celebrate Her Ninety-fifth Anniversary Tuesday, September 24th

From Friday's Daily
One of the grand old ladies in Cass county is Mrs. Mahala P. GRAVES, or as she is more affectionately known to hundreds through this section of Cass county , "Grandma"
Graves . This worthy lady will, on September 24th, celebrate her ninety-fifth birthday, and although almost touching the century mark, she is still bright and keen in her mind as one fifty years of age. A few weeks ago, she had the misfortune to fall at her home and fracture her wrist, which laid her up for some time, but she has practically recovered from this and with the care of her daughter, Mrs. Mary E. BURNETT, is now feeling in her accustomed good health.
Mrs. Graves has lived to be the head of five generations and this honor is one that comes to but few in a lifetime, and of her twelve children, seven are living; forty-seven grandchildren, forty living; thirty-eight great grandchildren, thirty-six living, and three great-great grandchildren, two of whom are living.
Mrs. Graves was born at Knoxville, Knox county , Tennessee on September 24, 1820. She made her home in that section until 1853, and was married in that county to William W. Graves on October 2, 1837, who had been born and reared in that same locality, being born there July 19, 1818. In 1853, the husband and wife, with their little family, decided that greater opportunities awaited them in the west, and accordingly moved to mills county Iowa , and pre-empted a quarter section of land three miles east of Glenwood , but after a few years decided to come to Nebraska , and in 1864, arrived at Rock Bluffs , then a flourishing little city, and located there, where they have resided since that time and where the husband and father passed away to the Better Land on October 6, 1895.

The lifetime of Mrs. Graves embraces a wonderful change in the life of the nation and of the west, where she has for so many years made her home. Since her arrival at an age of the appreciation of things she has lived to see three wars, the Mexican, the great conflict between the states of the union, and the Spanish -American war; twenty-three presidents have presided over the destinies of the nation since her birth. She has seen in the evolution of time the oxcart displaced by the giant locomotives of the present day, the wagon and carriage passed by the automobile, and now the air craft, the possibility of which would have seemed impossible in the days of her girlhood. She has eaten her food prepared in the old-fashioned fireplace from a fire made with flint and steel and lived to see electricity serve as the means of cooking. She has lived to see rulers and countries change in the melting pot of time, and still hopes to be spared to see other of the great wonders that the twentieth century will bring with it.

The children of this grand woman are as follows: Mrs. Harriet MILLER , Glenwood , Ia.; Alexander H. GRAVES, Murray , Neb.' Calvin M. GRAVES, Wapeto, Wash.; Oriana J. Graves, who died in mills county , Iowa , in 1865; Elbert Lawson Graves , North Yakima, Wash.; Andrew J. GRAVES, attorney at law, who died at Plattsmouth, Neb., in 1906; Julian D. GRAVES, Peru, Neb.; Alvin Shered Graves , New York City; Mrs. Ellen O. LACEY, who died at Omaha in 1900; Charles L. GRAVES, Union, Neb.; Mrs. Mary BURNETT , Rock Bluffs, who is caring for her mother at present.

Conley's have Death Certificate of Mahala Pearl Graves and it says her father was Henry Graves, that she was born in Tennessee, her father born in Virginia (census says he was born in Tennessee), Her mother's birth place unknown. She died of Pluro Pneumonia and face cancer. The informant on the death certificate is J. D. Graves.

Note that Mahala Pearl Graves has the same maiden name as her husband. They are lst cousins , 1 generation removed.

DEATH OF AN AGED CASS COUNTY LADY

From Thursday's daily. - Last evening at the home of J.D. Graves, at Peru, Nebraska, occurred the death of Mrs. Mahala P. Graves or "Grandma" Graves, as she was better known to the old neighbors and friends in Cass County. This venerable lady whose years of life lacked but two brief years of a full century, is one of the last of the pioneers who assisted in making this community what it is today, as she with her husband came here at a very early day and by hard work and perseverance made a home for the family along the bluffs of the mighty Missouri near the old town of Rock Bluffs, and the old homestead still stands as a monument to the worthy pioneer couple the last of whom has now answered the summons of the Master to her last long rest.

In the past few years Mrs. Graves has been failing in health and has made her home with her son, J.D. Graves at Peru, and just a short time ago enjoyed the privilege of having the children gather with her in what destined to be the last reunion of the family upon earth.

Mrs Mahala P. Graves was born in Knox County, East Tennessee, September 24, 1821, and was married in that state to William W. Graves on October 2, 1837. Mr. and Mrs. Graves removed from Tennessee to Iowa in 1852, pre-empting a quarter section of land three miles east of Glenwood. Here the family resided until 1864, when they moved to the new state of Nebraska, and settled near the then flourishing town of Rock Bluffs. Here they saw the community in which they lived pass from a flourishing community of several hundred population to a mere collection of empty stores, as monuments of past granduer; the country which at the time of their coming was but scarcely known aside from the few settlements along the river grow into one of the greatest agricultural empires of the world. It was given this venerable lady to see three times the nation take up the gage of battle and two of these conflicts were the greatest that the world has ever known, the great strive of state against nation and of the greatest republic of the world against the greatest empire of the world.

It is wonderful to contemplate the changes that this worthy lady has seen develop during her years of life and fitting that as the peace long prayed for came to the world her spirit should pass on giving her the peace and calm that comes at the close of her life. The Grave s family resided at Rock Bluffs up until a few years ago and there on October 6, 1895, the husband and father was called home to rest. Since the death of the husband, Mrs Graves has resided with the children. Twelve children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Graves as follows: A.J. Graves. deceased; J.D. Graves, Peru, Neb., Mrs Harriett Miller, Glenwood, Ia., A.N. Graves, Murra y, Neb., C.M. Graves and E.L. Graves, North Yakima, Washington, Mary E. Burnett, Rock Bluffs ; A.S. Graves, Brooklyn, N.Y., Charles L. Graves, Union, Nebraska, Mrs. Ellen O. Lacy, Omaha , deceased, one child died in infancy and Orlena Graves died in Cass County in 1865, aged 19 years. Funeral announcement of this venerable pioneer will be made later.

General index of deed, bk 3, Cass County Courthouse, Plattsmouth, Nebraska, lists: Mahala Graves (etal), April 2, 1895, bk 37, pg 157.

Noted events in her life were:

- Census: 1850, Knox County, Tennessee.

Mahala married William Willard Graves, son of David Graves and Mary Holloway "Polly", on 3 Oct 1837 in Knox County, Tennessee. William was born on 19 Jul 1818 in Knox County, Tennessee, died on 6 Apr 1895 in Rock Bluff, Cass County, Nebraska at age 76, and was buried in Rock Bluff, Cass County, Nebraska.

General Notes: The following notes were taken from biographies in Klickitat and Yakima Counties 1904, under the name of Elbert Lawson Graves. 1854 William Graves moved to Iowa 1855 William Graves moved to Missouri 1858 William Graves moved to Iowa 1860 William Graves moved to Nebraska 1867 William Graves moved to Missouri 1868 or 1869 William Graves moved to Nebraska 1895 William Graves died at Rock Bluff, Nebraska

From the "History of Rock Bluff Township" at the Plattsmouth, Nebraska Museum: "W.W. Graves born in Tennessee 1818, brick mason by vocation in Tennessee & later in Iowa where he came from, to Cass County in 1863. Here he had a saw mill. William Graves was also a farmer. He built a spinning wheel & loom for Mahala. It is on display at the Plattsmouth, Nebraska Museum. He married Mahala Pearl in Tennessee. Have death card on file.

OBITUARY
WILLIAM WILLARD GRAVES

William W. Graves, deceased was born in Knox County, East Tennessee, July 19, 1818, was married to Mahala P. Graves, October 2nd. 1837, she being born in the same county and state , September 22, 1821. They, with six children, moved by wagon to Mills County, Ia., in the autumn of 1852. They arrived at Elmwood December 2nd, 1852. From Elmwood they moved to Missouri September, 1858, thence to Plattsmouth in the spring of 1863. He resided in Nebraska since that date until the time of his death--April 6, 1895. The deceased has always been esteemed a worthy citizen wherever he has lived. He and his wife joined the Baptist Church in 1844, lived in that faith until they came west. Churches being scarce in those days, they did not attach themselves to any church until 1872, when he joined the Christian Church in which he has lived a faithful life ever since and died in the triumphs of a living faith. He called the ten living children to his bed instantly before he departed, and gave them good advice. After living a married life fifty-eight years, he dies leaving his wife and ten children- two preceded him to the better world. The following are the names, residence and ages of the children: Mrs. Harriett E. Miller, Glenwood Ia. Born in Tennessee November 22, 1838; Alex H . Graves, Rock Bluffs, Neb. General Notes: OBITUARY

MRS. MILLER DIES SUDDENLY Mrs. Harriet Miller, aged 87 Falls Asleep in Rocker at Her Home. Funeral Service Were Held This Thursday Morning.

Mrs. Harriet E. Miller

The death angel quietly stole over the threshold and claimed the spirit of Mrs. Harrie t Miller, aged pioneer as she sat in her rocker in the family home east of Glenwood Tuesday morning. Mrs Miller who was in her 87th year had been enjoying usual good health and the news of her death came as a shock to her many friends. Her daughter, Etta and Pearl with whom she made her home on the family homestead where they have lived so long were busy about the household duties. Their mother arose late, as was her custom, remarking however that her breakfast did not taste as good as usual and after eating but little returned to her rocker in the living room in which she fell asleep to awaken no more in this mortal sphere
Mrs. Miller was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Graves and was born in Knox County, Tennessee, November 22, 1838. She was the oldest of eleven children, two sisters and one brother having preceded her in death and six brothers and one sister survive her. She came here with her family from Tennessee in 1852. She was united in marriage with Joseph M. Miller November 14, 1861 and suffered all the pangs of a wife whose husband was exposed to shot and shell while battling for his cause in the great Civil War. There was born to her three sons and two daughters, the sons dying in infancy. Mrs. Miller united with the Methodist church in her young womanhood and remained a faithful member till her death. As a wife , mother and friend there were none more devoted than she. Her time was given completely to her family affairs rather than to public matter as she found her greatest enjoyment in the service she rendered for her loved ones within her family circle. Hers was a long useful life which came as beautifully and peacefully to the end of its earthly day as do the shades of twilight fade gradually from the glow of crimson and gold to the somber hues of dusk. Such lives remind us that beyond the night there in the dawn of another day which we like to believe brings with it reunion of broken family ties.
The sister Mary E. Burnett of Omaha and six brothers, A. H. Graves, Murray, Neb., C. M . Graves and E.L. Graves of Yakima, Wash., J.D. Graves, Peru, Neb., A.S. Graves, Washington a nd C.L. Graves, Union, Neb., together with her two daughters, Etta and Pearl are left to mourn her passing. Funeral services were held from the home at 10 O'Clock Thursday morning, her pastor, Rev. J.H. Freedline of the Glenwood M.E. Church officiating. The body was laid to rest in the Glenwood cemetery beside her husband and sons.(Source: Opinion-Tribune, March 11, 19 26.)

Death of Mrs Arminda Graves Pioneer Woman Dies at ripe age of ninety years at home here after a short illness. This afternoon at 1:30, Mrs Arminda Graves, 90, one of the oldest residents of Cass Co., died at her home in this city where for several days she has been in very critical condition.

Taken ill sometime ago Mrs. Graves has fought bravely against the illnss but at her great age was unable to stand the long ordeal of the sickness.

The life of Mrs. Graves and her husband, the late Alexander H. Graves, is a part of the story of Cass County as they were members of pioneer families that helped to carve out homes in the new country of the west and where they were for many years active figures.

Arminda J. Boemer was born in the state of Arkansas and when a girl came to Mills Co., Iowa , in 1865, her parents settling near Glenwood and where on June 22, 1865 she married to Alexander H. Graves. They moved to Cass County shortly after their marriage and have since resided here until the end of life's long journey. For a great many years the family engaged in farming but in later years moved to Murray where Mr. Graves died several years ago and since which time the wife has made her home in Plattsmouth for the greater part of the time. She is survived by three sons and two daughters. J.H. Graves of this city, George and Edward Graves of Peru, Mrs F.E. Vallery of Omaha and Mrs Bert Crawford of Oregon. There are a large number of grandchildren and great grandchildren surviving. She was preceded in death by husband and two daughters. Mrs Grace Baxter and Mrs Iva Churchill. The body is at Horton funeral home to await the funeral arrangements. Obit also in Glenwood Opinion-Tribune, Glenwood, Iowa, Monday, May 1, 1939

428. Elbert Lossen Graves "Loss" was born on 22 Jun 1848 in Knox County, Tennessee, died on 21 May 1927 in Yakima, Yakima County, Washington at age 78, and was buried on 24 May 1927 in Tahoma Cemetery, Yakima, Yakima County, Washington.

General Notes: Elbert Lossen Graves, (Loss), born Jan 22, 1848 (his bible record is June 22, 1848) in Knox County, Tennessee, Educated in the public schools of Iowa and Nebraska. It is not known if he graduated. Married November 23, 1871 to (1) Ella Agnes Phoebe Carrell at Sonora, Missouri . She was born Nov 10, 1856 in Cass County, Nebraska. She was the daughter of John Edward Carrell and Margaret Elizabeth Smith. Educated in the public schools of Nebraska. Not known if she graduated. Member of the Baptist Church. She died October 21, 1918 at Yakima, Washington . Married (2) November 24, 1922 to Sitha Jane Waits Moore, born July 26, 1881, Married in Yakima, Washington. Sitha Jane died April 6, 1928. Elbert Graves was the first postmaster of Blue Light, Washington, the Post Office being located in his home, where he Homesteaded 160 acre s; So. West Qt. sec. 34, twp 7, rg 21, Yakima County, Washington, for dry land wheat farming . Sometime between 1904 and 1907 they moved to Puyallup, Washington where he worked in a sawmill. He returned to Yakima County in 1909. Returned to Yakima in 1910, Purchased two lots i n Hillcrest Addition and built a two story, three bedroom home. He owned and operated two grocery stores, one near So. 2nd, Ave, in 1917. Other occupations were mason by trade, photographer, carpenter and farmer. At various times after returning to Yakima he worked for farmers near home, in fruit orchards. After the death of his first wife, Ella, his son John William Graves remained with him until he married in 1922. For a short time in 1921 he shared his home with his daughter, Mary Evangeline Graves Williams, (Vangie) and her family. Moving from there to North 5th Ave he remained with Vangie until he remarried. Through some friends he became acquainted with his second wife, Sitha Jane (Waits) Moore and married November 24, 1922. I n 1923 he sold his home on Tieton Drive and purchased a grocery store with living quarters at 501 Cherry Ave., Yakima, Washington which he operated until he passed away May 21, 1927 of a stroke. He and his wife Ella were both baptized October 25, 1894 in the Baptist Church. Elbert was known to be a very hard worker, good to his wife and family, an excellent swimmer and diver, known to have swam across the Missouri river on his back. Tragically he found his sister's child drowned in a creek. His parting words to me were always, "don't go near the water". He had a double set of teeth on his lower jaw. He died May 21, 1927 at home in Yakima, Washington and was buried beside his wife Ella, May 24, 1927 in Tahoma Cemetery, Yakima, Washington. Elbert also had a sawmill in the Wenas, about 25 miles north west of Selah, Washington . Elbert had a bad eye and also a double goiter. (both sides of the neck)

Remembering Yakima by those who were there, Yakima Vally Sun - Feb. 22. 1979. Loss Graves and Bluelight: Memories of a man and a town no longer on the map - by Cindy Warren. Elbert Lossen Graves spent some important years of his life in towns that are no longer marked on any map. Born on June 22, 1848, Knox County Tennessee, Graves married Ella Agnes Phoebe Carrell (sister of Elisha Simpson Carrell) on November 23, 1871, in a town called Sonora, Missouri. That scene of his marriage is no longer seen on any map. Neither is Bluelight , a town near Bickleton, Washington, where Graves served as the first postmaster. All that is left of the small community is the old Graves home and a good share of memories tucked away in the minds of Bluelight's former residents. After Graves and his new bride eloped, they lived for a while in Rock Bluffs, Nebraska. With their seven children, they settled in the Bickleton area about 1900. The bricklayer, mason, photographer and carpenter accepted the job of postmaster for the community, which was as yet un-named. One story of how Bluelight got its name went like this: Realizing that the collection of a general store, livery stable, blacksmith shop and butcher shop had to be named in order to qualify for a post office, Graves and a man named Ed Gleason put their heads together. It was Gleason's idea to name the not-quite town after the blue glow (from lamps) he saw in the night when returning from church . So Bluelight it was, however short-lived. Being a fun loving sort, Graves himself built a dance hall in the tiny town. Lumber to build the entertainment center was hauled by bobsled. Elbert Graves held the position of postmaster until 1904 when he turned the duties over to his niece, Nellie Graves Carrell (Uncle Wilber Carrell's wife). This versatile man's next job was with a Puyallup sawmill.(town up near Seattle). He established a sawmill of his own located in the Wenas upon returning to the Valley in 1908. Although business venture s were not usually shared by men and their wives, Graves operated a merry-go-round on South Second Street; and Mrs Graves (daughters Vangie and Lulu) painted the horses and took tickets . Long afterwards he would buy whole strings of merry-go-round tickets so his granddaughter Addie (Rhodes) could ride the wooden horses at the state fair. (Merry-go-round at Bickleton Pioneer Picnic at Cleveland was restored by Joy T. Carrell) In 1910, Graves moved to Yakima after purchasing property on the corner of 17th and Teiton Drive. He and his wife lived in a two-story home he built there. His daughter and her family lived next door. At this time , he was operating a small store located on the corner of Second and Yakima avenues, right next to a Chinese restaurant. He and his wife and son John shared the store keeping respon sibilities, stocking mainly staple goods since they had no refrigeration. They sold vinegar f rom barrels and many kinds of penny candy. Granddaughter Addie Rhodes hasn't forgotten the penny candy days of Grandad's store. All day suckers and licorice whips sold for a cent. Many times she asked for "bacon", a flat red and white stripped coconut candy. She had such a yearning for the pink soda pop, but "they couldn't afford to buy it." Although thrifty Grandpa Graves continued to walk to his store to save the 10 cent street car fare, his son-in-law Elmer Williams decided to go new-fangled and bought a car. Oh how the children (and wife Vangie) cried, recalls Mrs Rhodes, when her father sold the family's horses. Shortly after, two more milestones occurred for the family, one on November 11 of that year, the first Ar mistice parade was held in downtown Yakima. Granddaughter Addie stood on the corner opposite the store for her parade-side view. After his wife's death, Graves gave up the store but continued living in the home they had shared. He was forced out, however, when the city decided to install a sewer and city water system. Taxes were upped so high he had to move to a home on fifth Avenue. His life took a turn for the better again when he married Sitha Waits and began running a store located on Cherry Avenue. He retained his storekeeper status until he died. Several of his descendants still live in Yakima: Granddaughters Addie R hodes, Blanche Anderson, Juanita Coller, Mary Zeigler, Edith Speer (Edith, Eneinitas, California), and Patricia Taylor (Pat, Spokane, Washington) Mrs. Rhodes would like to see her grandfather's now ghost town residence immortalized with a blue light, set atop a power pole, in memory of a man and a town no longer on any maps.

Noted events in his life were:

- Census: 1850, Knox County, Tennessee.

Elbert married Ella Agnes Phoebe Carrell, daughter of John Edward Carroll and Margaret Elizabeth Smith, on 23 Nov 1871 in Sonora, Atchison County, Missouri. Ella was born on 10 Nov 1856 in Cass County, Nebraska, died on 30 Oct 1918 in Yakima, Yakima County, Washington at age 61, and was buried in Tahoma Cemetery, Yakima, Yakima County, Washington.

General Notes: Information sent to Conleys from D'Rollen Carrell on 27 April 1990 from the Family Bible is as follows:
"The funeral of Mrs Ella A. Graves will be held this afternoon, a short service being held for the family at the home at 2 o'clock, followed by a public service at the grave . 430. Julian David Graves was born on 15 Dec 1852 in Glenwood, Mills County, Iowa and died on 21 Jan 1937 in Peru, Nemaha County, Nebraska at age 84.

General Notes: The marriage of J.D. Graves and Miss Capitol Reed of Peru was mentioned briefly in the Ledger last week, but the fact they are both well known in the county, is sufficient reason for their friends to ask us for details of the wedding. The wedding was a nicely planned suprise, especially for the brides parents, Dr. and Mrs. F.B.Reed, who had been _______to go for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. David R. ______relatives residing at Indianapolis, Indiana, and when Miss Reed joined her parents there, it caused no suspicion of a wedding not even when Mr Graves arrived there the morning of Dec. 30. A minister was conveniently present when dinner was announced, and the suprise was complete when he pronounced the ceremony at the table. Mr. and Mrs. Graves returned to Peru a few days later, and will reside there. Both parties were Cass County students in the palmy days of the "Naomi Institute" at Rock Bluffs under professor J.D. Patterson and professor (now Judge) B.S. Ramsey. The bride was born in this county, being the daughter of Dr. F.B. Reed who practiced his profession in the village of Rock Bluffs a number of _____locating in Peru. At Peru Miss Reed graduated from the state Normal School and later was a graduate of _____in Chicago and Baltimore and has since completed very extensive and successful practice in Peru. Mr Graves was also graduate of the state Norma School and ______course in Lincoln, afterward practicing law in this state and Texas. Later he abandoned law practice and engaged in mercantile business (could not read the rest of ne s clipping) (Source: Union Ledger newspaper)

SKETCH OF LIFE OF J.D. GRAVES

J.D. Graves, 84, uncle of the Misses Etta and Pearl Graves, died in an Omaha hospital Thursday, Jan 21. His death was due to influenza. His body was taken to Plattsmouth where he had once resided and where short funeral services were held, after which it was taken to Peru where funeral services and interment took place on Sun Jan 24.

The following life sketch of Mr. Graves appeared in the Peru Pointer:

Julian David Graves was born December 15, 1852, in Mills County, Iowa, and had reached the age of 84 years, 1 month, and 6 days. His parents moved to Rock Bluff, a then thriving village of some size south of Plattsmouth in Cass county, but at present only a town in name. Here he received his primary education, and later came to Peru and graduated from the Normal school. He then went to Lincoln and studied law, after which he went to Benkleman, where he served as county attorney of Dundy county. He was for a time a resident of Texas, and was made a Mason while living there transferring his membership to Peru when he located here permanently.
He was married Dec 29, 1901 to Eleanor Capitola (Dr Capp) Reed, and they made their home here until her death, he practicing law and looking after their farm interests and she practicing medicine until her death Sept 5, 1928. Mrs. Graves was the daughter of the late Dr. F. B. Reed, the first mayor of Rock Bluff.
Since the death of his wife, Mr Graves has continued to make his home in Peru, though at times he would spend weeks or even months with relatives at Plattsmouth or Lincoln.
Mr. Graves was taken ill with the flu a few days before his death, and Dr. Joder removed him at once to the hospital. There flu developed in pneumonia, and at his age this proved fatal in spite of all that could be done for him.

Mr. Graves was united with the Methodist church in early life, and was a faithful Christian as long as he lived, giving liberally both of his goods and service to the church. He was a man highly respected by all who knew him. Failing health forced him about three years ago to cease active work, both in the church and out of it, but he always kept up his interest in church and community affairs. (Glenwood Opinion-Tribune, Glenwood, Iowa, Monday, February 8, 1937)

Julian married Elinor Capitol Reed "Capp", daughter of Francis B. Reed and Unknown, in 1901 in Cass County, Nebraska.

General Notes: Elinor Capitol Reed was a medical doctor.

Cap Reed was the daughter of F.B. Reed.
Eleanaor Capitola Reed was born at Rock Bluffs, December 21, 1859. She graduated from Peru State Normal School, June 14, 1882. She went on to receive her medical degree from Rush Medical College in Chicago, April 5, 1885. She took pos graduate courses at John Hopkins and interned in New York City. After practicing for a while in Fort Worth, Texas, she returned to Peru, Nebraska to take care of her mother until she died in 1904. She married J.D. Graves, December 30, 1901, at Indianaola, Iowa. She remained in Peru, Nebraska to practice medicine. She became ill on January 1, 1929 and died at Peru September 5, 1919. (J.D. Graves is Julian David)

E.C. Reed uses the last portion of this journal as a daily journal, October 24, 1877 through December 23, 1877. She gives a short history of her early years and happenings in the family. She mentions the studies at Peru and school happenings, but the entiries mainly refer to family matters. Dr. Reed was known as Dr Cap. Some of the entries in the diary are signed Capp.

The source of this diary is not known. This collection appeared in the 1966 Nebraska State Historical Society Guide to Collections. The earliest inventory is dated September 1965.

OBITUARY OF ALICE J. GRAVES

Alice J. Graves was born in March, 1866, in Carroll county, Missouri, and came to Nebraska during 1887, and on December 18, 1887, in Plattsmouth, was married to Charles L. Graves. rev. W. H. Alexander officiating. With her husband she shortly after their marriage moved to Union, in this county, where she has resided for the past twenty-four years. Three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Graves --- Harry of Eagle, and Misses Verna and Leola at home, who with her husband, are left to mourn her untime [sic] death.
Mrs. Graves had been in poor health for a number of years, her last illness being of about thirteen weeks' duration. she was first attacked with pneumonia, followed by other complications, which would not yield to treatment, although all that medical skill could do was done in her behalf. Mrs. Graves was a kind and obliging neighbor, a loving wife and mother, and had a great many warm friends in the community in which she was best known, and to evidence their great esteem and respect for the departed the Baptist church was crowded at her funeral, which occurred Wednesday afternoon.
Standing room could not be found for all who desired to show their regard for this estimable lady. The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union. Mrs. Graves was a member of the Baptist church and also a member of the Royal Neighbors of America. John Corey of this city, representing the Red Men lodge, of which Mr. Graves is a member, attended the funeral, bearing a wreath of beautiful flowers for the casket of Mrs. Graves. The Journal extends sympathy to the bereaved husband and children in this sad hour of their great sorrow. --

Plattsmouth Evening Journal. --------------- Kindness Appreciated.
Wife and mother gone, we are now more than ever able to realize that her place in the home as a companion, advisor and protector, was one that she alone could fill, and the vacant chair, the vacant place at the table, and many other objects in the house are silent reminders of her real worth as companion and mother.
During the many weeks of her suffering and at the close of this life neighbors and friends in Union and vicinity did many things to alleviate her suffering and endeavored to cheer the sad hearts; her Royal Neighbor sisters, associates in church and choir, her Pastor, the teachers and pupils, the Noble Red Men order and many others, showed the true Christian spirit in their own good ways; many kind friends here andelswhere have written us words of comfort.
We wish we could grasp the hand of each and express our gratitude, but for the present we can only say in this card that we are very thankful for all those acts and words of kindness to her and to us. Sometime, somewhere, you will all be rewarded.

General Notes: Source: Mildred Kaufman
McGinnis Churchill could be called a renaissance man. He was always tinkering, tryng to find better, or more creative ways to do things, so that life could be easier on the plains of the midwest. He was remebered as playing his fiddle on the porch, and entertaining the folks with with his hand-made "dancers" which he would minipulate with is feet as he played. He had a popcorn stand, and provided pocorn for the weekly movies in town. He was also the local Barber in Murray, Nebraska, owning the Deal Barber Shop on Main Street. He was know to his friends as "Mack", and I am sure had some of the best stories in town.

Some of his tinkering paid off. On October 30, 1928 Mack Churchill received a patent for the "Easy (EZ) Way Garden Plow." His simple garden plow was multi functional, and could be used for many purposes such as cultivating, covering, and weeding. The plow is on display at the Cass County Historical Society Museum, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

> DAUGHTER OF A.H. GRAVES OF MURRAY - LIVED IN NORTH PART OF NEBRASKA
> FIRST TAKEN WITH INFLUENZA
> Complications occurred and Rupture of Arterie Caused Amputation of Limb - Disastrous
> From Wednesday's Daily
> This morning at three o'clock, at a hospital in Omaha, the life of one of the former citizens of Murray ebbed away. The deceased was Mrs. Harry BAXTER, formerly Miss Grace GRAVES, who with her husband and children moved to Crofton, in the northern part of the state, about a year ago.
> Some two or three weeks ago, Mrs. Baxter was taken sick with the influenza then so prevalent over the state. From that came a complication resulting in the rupture of an arteries of one of her limbs. This proved so serious that amputation of the member was deemed necessary if her life was to be spared at all. In the case of the amputation the desired results were not attained and the patient grew gradually worse until this morning when the angel of death, long hovering near, came to her relief, ending the intense pain she suffered.
> Mrs. Baxter leaves besides her husband, two children, one sixteen months of age, and the other nine years old. She also leaves a brother and parents living at [looks like] Murray [few words illegible] Christian church at Murray tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock.

General Notes: Nellie Ett Graves is Scharmal Triesch Conleys 1st Cousin 2 times removed Nellie married Wilbur Theodore Carrell, son of John Edward Carroll and Margaret Elizabeth Smith, on 7 Jun 1896 in Cass County, Nebraska. Wilbur was born on 27 Jun 1875 in Rock Bluff, Cass County, Nebraska, died on 7 Jul 1959 in Winthrop, Okanogan County, Washington at age 84, and was buried in Winthrop, Okanogan County, Washington.

General Notes: * Wilbur Theodore Carrell married again after his first wife died in 1937. Her name was Bessie M Sharp. He married her about 1940. Sources tell us that she was a hooker from the west side of the mountains, around Bellingham, Wa. She was quite a gal from the information that we got from Frank Carroll (no relation) who lives in Winthrop. (he is 81 years old and has lived in Winthrop off and on all of his life). She used to bake bread to sell and sold booze. (for more than the liquor store charged).

* In a conversation with Frank Carroll (no relation) on 31 July 1987, in Winthrop, Washington he knew Wilbur Carrell. Wilbur was called Bill and so was Frank Carroll's father. Both Bills got drunk at a picnic one day and later got into a fight in the Three Fingers Jack pool hall in Winthrop. Bill Carroll broke several of Wilbur's ribs and his jaw. The fight of the two Bill Carrells, was talked about for a long time around town. Frank Carroll said that Wilber was a bully.

* According to Frank Carroll, Wilbur Carrell lived on the south fork of the Methow river west of Winthrop. He grew alfalfa on irrigated land. He later lived about 3 miles east of Winthrop on the old Twisp road. (we saw the house that Frank Carroll said he lived in.)

* Wilbur Carrell moved to Winthrop around 1920.

* Wilbur Carrell's Marriage license states: born 1875 married Nellie Graves 7 June 1896. (Wilbur is the youngest son of John E Carrell and Margaret Smith) Nellie Graves father is Calvin Graves her mother is Milissa Jane Shaffer. "Alvy was such a quiet, closed mouthed individual not particularly overly friendly or out going or outlandish in any degree. We Kids were never exposed to his family relation hardly at all except by occasional visits. I didn't learn of our Germanic background until I was at least 55 years of age and even then by the most remote event imaginable. I suspect that lack of interest played a large role on the part of lm father and perhaps even his children....Genealogy was not a topic of conversation. Alvy was

General Notes: OBITUARY

Union Gap - Mrs Addie L. Rhodes,78, of Yakima died Sunday, June 4, 1989 at the Parkside Nursing Care Center, Union Gap. She was born November 10, 1910 in Yakima to Elmer T. & Mary E. (Graves) Williams. She was raised and educated in Yakima and it was there that she married Leonard Rhodes on September 18, 1929. In her earlier years she was a sorter at several local fruit warehouses. She was also a housewife and homemaker. Mrs Rhodes was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 6th Ward and enjoyed genealogy work, gardening and working in her yard. She is survived by a son and daughter-in-law, Elmer & Georgia Rhodes of Yakima. She was preceded in death by her husband, Leonard Rhodes on April 11, 1958. Graveside services will be held Thursday, June 8, at 11 a.m. at Tahoma Cemetery. Those attending will meet at the grave. Memorials may be made to the donor's favorite charity. (Source: Yakima Daily Herald, 4 June 1989)

*Don & Scharmal Conley received the address of Addie Rhodes from Ada Ruth Whitmore of Bickleton, Wa. They wrote to her and went to visit her in 1987. She had been ill however she was happy to meet them. She had a family album which belonged to her grandfather and mother. She allowed Don to take photos of the pictures in it. We are grateful as many Carrell & Graves people were in it. She showed us her book of memories and gave us some addresses. She also had tin type photos and a bible that we didn't see. She took us to the cemetery to take photos of markers. Many of her photos are in "The Descendants of John Graves" book as well as some information. Her full name is Addie Idella Williams. She has a brother, Harvey Glenn Williams (deceased). She was born on her grandmothers' birthday. Her mother was "Vangie", Mary Evangeline Graves Williams. Addie's book of memories are on tape at the LDS, put there by Nela Ray Holt. Addie's parents or grandparents were married on John Edward Carrell's homestead-20 acre tract- Cass County, Nebraska. Obituary:
CHLOE RENE DELACY (BYERS) FRANSON ANDERSON, 89 years, a resident of the West Point Living Center, passed away Friday, August 31, 2007, following a relatively short period of disability.

Chloe was born to Charles and Minnie (Baker) Byers on April 2, 1918, in Walthill, NE. She was a 1936 graduate of Walthill High School.

On November 15, 1936, Chloe was married to Bennie J. Franson in Stockton, California. Bennie was from Lyons, NE, but was in California seeking work. Neither was able to find satisfying employment and moved back to Nebraska, where they took up farming near Rosalie. Bennie passed away as a result of an auto accident in 1970 and shortly after, Chloe moved from the family farm to a small home in Rosalie.

On March 5, 1977, she was married to Harold A. Anderson of Bancroft, NE. After Harold passed away in August of 1987, Chloe moved to a duplex at Elkhorn Village in West Point, Nebraska. She resided there until July of this year when disability necessitated a move to the West Point Living Center.

Chloe was fond of antiques and in her earlier years kept herself busy looking for pieces, fixing some if needed and selling to other collectors and dealers. Personally, she collected dolls and enjoyed repairing them and sewing new clothes for them. She also enjoyed traveling and over the years visited many places in the Western United States, Canada and Alaska plus tours to Europe and New Zealand/Australia.

Chloe is preceded in death by her parents and husbands: Bennie Franson and Harold Anderson; twin boys, Benny and Denny, who were still born due to a bout with pneumonia during pregnancy.

Surviving include her two sons: Warren B. Franson of Blue Springs, Missouri, David K. Franson at the Norfolk Veterans Home in Norfolk, Nebraska; three grandchildren: Scott Franson of Union, Kentucky, Jason Franson of Independence, Missouri, Sara Franson of Lee's Summit, Missouri; two great grandchildren: Mrs. Shanell Patterson and Ethan Franson, and one great, great grandchild: Logan Patterson; stepdaughters: Mrs. John (Darlene) Carter and Mrs. Ronald (Delores) McKensie; stepson: Dale Anderson plus numerous step grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Chloe will be fondly remembered and missed by many other relatives and friends to numerous to include.

CARRELL–FORD

Miss Wilma Carrell, of Rock View, and Frank Ford, of Issaquah, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Carrell and Mr. and Mrs Wayne Carrell, Tuesday afternoon, June 30. The bridal party stood under the willow tree on the front lawn, Mrs. Harold Davis, sister to the groom, attending the bride.

The service was read by Rev. McNees, of Twisp, and Berna Allen, of Winthrop, furnished the music. Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ford, father and mother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis, of Issaquah, brother-in-law and sister of the groom; Mrs. Wiley, aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Nelson, of Winthrop; Miss Berna Allen and Rev. McNees.

Miss Berna Allen, school classmate and friend of the bride, played the wedding march for the young couple and sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride was dressed in pink taffeta, while her attendant, Mrs. Helen Davis, wore white organdy. Both the bride and matron of honor carried bouquets of roses.

The young couple will make their home in Issaquah.

A few days previous to the wedding, Miss Carrell was the guest of honor at a bride's shower given by her friends at the Community Building in Winthrop. Pink roses and ferns decorated the large club-room. A musical program was given by Mrs. Raymond Johnson, Barbara Looney, Beatrice MacFarlane and Berna Allen, and much merriment was caused by the "Hillbilly Wedding" in which Mrs. Charles Roesel, Mrs. Ed Ramm and Mrs. Willis Rothgeb took part.

A luncheon of ice cream and cake was served to 65 ladies, after Wilma Carrell had unwrapped her many presents.

Mrs. Ford's many friends here, where she was raised and graduated from high school, wish them all success and happiness in their new life.

Warren Byers Franson
Son of Bennie J. Franson and Chloe Rene Delacy Byers

General Notes: Obituary:
WARREN BYERS. FRANSON 67 years of Blue Springs, Missouri, formerly of the Rosalie, Nebraska area passed away Sunday, June 21, 2009, at the McKay- Dee Hospital in Ogden, Utah.
How to sum up the life of Warren Byers Franson ... The facts: He was born June 3, 1942, to Bennie and Chloe (Byers) Franson. He grew up on a farm in Rosalie, NE where he and his family would dream of owning flat land to farm rather than hills. He went to Rosalie High School and graduated in 1959. He could spend an entire afternoon talking about all the work he used to do on his car and how he and his buddies would race into town on the dirt roads. He loved cars and he loved to go fast.
He joined the US Navy in 1959 as a way to see the world. After his four year term, he gave college a try at the University of Montana, where he had aspirations of becoming a film producer. The daily routine of college wasn't for him and the call from the sea was too strong to ignore. In 1964, he re-enlisted in the Navy. He married Sharon Schwarten, from Emerson, NE, on December 29, 1966. Together, they had three children, two sons (Scott and Jason) and a daughter (Sara). By 1981, he and Sharon came to the realization that they were better at being friends and divorced, but remained close.
Once his term in the Navy was over, he went to work for AT&T Communications and reaped the benefits of early retirement. As a retiree, he was free to dabble in anything that interested him. He became interested in antiques and began scouting auctions and finding good buys that he could clean up and sell. He still loved his fast cars and would spend hours researching and enhancing his 1984 Ford Mustang, then his 1991 Ford Thunderbird, to his latest 1998 Lincoln Mark VIII.
He also spent a lot of his free time taking vacations. He has seen most of the world, from Japan to Australia to China to Europe to South America. His greatest traveling pleasures; however, took place in the great United States of America, and always with family. He spent many trips with his younger brother, David Franson, and his kids. Trips were always a family affair. Countless hours were spent on the open highway, heading west. Travel within the United States was almost always done by car. He fully believed that people who took airplanes missed so much of the beauty and history that our country had to offer. His final vacation was a trip to Rosalie, NE for his 50th high school reunion, then to Salt Lake City, UT for a reunion with his former Navy shipmates. The plan was to continue on to Brookings, OR, where he could sink his feet into the sand and smell the sweet Pacific Ocean air. He never made it to Brookings, OR. He passed away due to internal complications in Ogden, UT on June 21, 2009, surrounded by his kids and grandkids.
The facts of Warren Franson's life do not begin to describe him as a person. He was strong and faithful when it came to his dedication and love for his family and friends. He was stubborn and determined when it came to doing something he very much wanted. He was a pleasant and joyous surprise to everyone that met him. He spent a lot of his last three years in and out of hospitals and one of the most common remarks from the nurses and doctors were, "We just love him." Was it his sense of humor, his mannerisms, his truthfulness? It was all of those things that made him Warren.

He relished and thrived in laughter and being surrounded by his loved ones. Space and the final frontier fascinated him. Fast cars, planes and ships excited him. Good toe tappin' music thrilled him. Travel and new things intrigued him. Independence Day and other loud bangs and booms electrified him. Accomplishments of his family and friends radiated from him. He was always one to never let things get in the way of doing what he truly wanted to do. He lived his life to the fullest and he expected nothing less from those around him.
His brother, David Franson, his sons, Scott Franson and Jason Franson, his daughter, Sara Franson, his grandchildren, Shanell Patterson and Ethan Franson, his great-grandchild, Logan Patterson, and his countless number of friends will carry the memory of Warren in their hearts. When a Grateful Dead, Elvis Presley, or John Denver song plays on the radio, when a night sky is spotted with endless stars, or when a fireworks display illuminates the darkness and shatters the silence, be sure to smile and know that Warren would be doing the exact same thing. Rejoice in all of the wonders of the world, natural and man-made, surround yourself with family and friends, and do whatever you can to be happy with life.

658. Otto Joseph Triesch was born on 20 Sep 1922 in Yakima, Yakima County, Washington, died on 28 Nov 2010 in Kennewick, Benton County, Washington at age 88, and was buried on 2 Dec 2010 in Sunset Memorial Gardens, Richland, Benton County, Washington. The cause of his death was Cancer.

General Notes: The following was written by Otto's sister at his 85th birthday Party.

A little boy born in Yakima WA. to Joseph and Winnifred Triesch.was named Otto Joseph, born Sep 20th 1922 weighing in at 9 pounds. He had lots of dark hair becoming thick and curly in years to come. Then OOPS! He didn't need a comb.
The family lived on a farm in Benton City Wa for most of Otto's toddler years. About 1928 the family of three moved to Tacoma where Otto attended Holy Rosary School.
After Christmas one year he gathered all of the discarded Christmas trees and delivered them one by one back to the neighbors. Always looking for something to do he and a friend once delivered his mom and dads love letters to the neighbors mail boxes. Otto and his parents moved back to Benton City in the early 1930s where they raised asparagus, black angus cattle, grapes, alfalfa, chickens, pigs and fruit on their 60 acre farm. As a young adult, Otto worked beside his parents at various tasks. However he was never fond of the farm work.
When Otto was 17, his baby sister was born in Prosser on the hottest day ever recorded there on July 27, 1939 (114) degree. He always protected and watched over her however she was a little rascal to him. She would jump off of the barn onto his back when he was carrying buckets of milk to the house. Otto has no other brothers or sisters.
He has always been a kind and gentle man and has had many good friends throughout his long life.
He has never been married, has never inhaled cigarette smoke nor has he cussed or drank. He has survived numerous surgeries determined to keep going with a positive attitude (No wonder he lives to age 85)-just like the energizer bunny. He just keeps going and going.
The family farm was sold in 1952 making Otto very happy to move to town where he lived near his & grandmother and parents for many years. About 1959 he inherited a small house from his grandmother. Otto and his parents were once again living together. Otto's sister was married, living in Kennewick with her family. He would visit and enjoy being with his nieces and nephews. They call him "UNKIE."Scott told his mother he was about age 10 before he knew Otto had another name besides UNKIE. Unkie now has 8 great nieces and nephews and 2 great great nieces.
Otto's dad passed away June 1976, leaving Otto and his mother still living in Benton City.
When the Washington Street Dessert Villa Apt. was being built, Otto and his mother applied to move into one of the Apartments when completed. In the meantime they sold their home and moved in with Otto's sister and family waiting for the completion of the building. The steel strike delayed construction so the two families lived together for 18 months. Otto had a dog named Chris which he left with his sister to care for.
The day finally arrived and Otto and Winnifred Triesch moved into Apt 328-2 bedroom on So. Washington St. where they made many friends and both joined the Senior Citizens center becoming very involved in most activities. bingo, square dancing, pool, ceramics, dominoes, dards, exercise classes. Otto received a certificate for 28 years of volunteer service at the Senior Center. He belonged to the Kettle Scrappers, was in many parades. He played Santa Clause for many years. He always had many unique costumes for Halloween and enjoyed most of the activities. Helped deliver meals on wheels and served beverages and washed dishes at the Senior center noon meals. He loves to fish and travel. He had a pet Finch and asked his sister to care for it while he was visiting friends. He hasn't asked her to care for or any more of his things. He has always grown plants and flowers and planted a garden.

Otto's mother died in 1984, he moved into apt # 227- A (1) bedroom on South Washington. St. where he resided until most recently when he fell and broke his ankle. His doctor advised him to discontinue living alone. This decision was difficult, however Otto knew this was the best thing to do and agreed to leave Dessert Villa where he has lived for 29 years. He moved to the adult family home belonging to Denise and John Larson on 26th and Garfield in Kennewick during July 2007.
Today, many of Otto's friends, neighbors, relatives and special care providers are here to help him celebrate his 85th birthday. We want to thank all of these special persons in Otto's life for taking him to decorate family graves, to Church and to many of the various activities he has been involved in over the many years. Bringing him goodies, looking after him when he was recuperating from surgeries, and unlocking his door when he was locked out. Taking him to various appointments. Taking him to Mariners games.(As you all probably know he is a big fan). Thanks for taking him to the fair and to the ocean as well as community events and dinners at your home.
Thank you for all of the phone calls, well wishes, visits and cards when he was in the hospital and Life care.
Thanks to all of you for the goodies here at the Potluck and thanks to all involved in helping us honor Otto on his special day
Happy Birthday Otto and many more!
In conclusion-thank you to the Monday night Bible study group for letting us use this room for this special party.

GIBBS FAMILY HISTORY

The grandfather of Nicholas Gibbs left England because of religious and political reasons to save his head when his King, Charles I, lost his in 1649. He married a woman in Amsterdam and never went back to London,[1] but sought refuge along the Rhine River in Germany, and it was in the village of Wallruth, near the town of Krumbach, Duchy of Baden, that Nicholas was born Sept. 29, 1733.

In the original Gibbs family there were three brothers, Peter, Abraham, and Nicholas, and two sisters, Mary and Catherine. Abraham and Nicholas came from Germany to America, Nicholas coming to America in 1747 and Abraham sometime prior to that time. Peter died in Germany before Nicholas left for America. Abraham settled in the town of Fredericktown, Maryland and his descendants were residents of Balitmore, Maryland, in 1846. Nicholas, named for his father (Nicholas of Germany), became offended with his father in some way and left home for America at the age of 14 years (1747). He left home with 30 guineas ($150.00 in American money), which the captain of the ship told him was just half enough to pay for his fare across the ocean, so Nicholas sold his time to pay for the other half. After working his time out for the other half of his fare, he joined the English army and served five years in the French and Indian War. While he was a soldier his brother, Abraham, heard of him and sought an appointment with him. Nicholas had no recollection of ever having seen his brother, so he applied the criterion his mother had given him by which to identify Abraham, should ever they meet, which was a spot or scar on Abraham's head. Finding the spot on Abraham's head, he at once claimed him as his brother. After serving his tour of five years, Nicholas went to Frederickstown, Maryland, to live with his brother, Abraham. However, his brother's wife and he did not harmonize, so Nicholas went to North Carolina and settled in Orange County, where he married Miss Mary Ephland, and where part of his family was grown and some married before he came to East Tennessee to settle 12 miles northeast of Knoxville, Tennessee, near House Mountain.

Nicholas sold his property in Orange County, North Carolina, on October 12, 1791, to Obed Green. His daughter, Catherine, married John Holmes on October 17, 1791, and it is believed that shortly after her marriage, he and his large family moved to East Tennessee and settled in what is now Knox County. His old home is still standing near Harbison's Cross Roads (1952).

According to Tennessee records, Nicholas bought 450 acres of land in Hawkins County on March 6, 1792, for 200 pounds, "including Beaver Dam Fork on Beaver Creek." This section of Hawkins County later became part of Knox County, when on June 11, 1792[2], Governor Blount issued an ordinance defining the lines of Greene and Hawkins Counties, and laying off two new counties, Knox and Jefferson.

On July 18, 1792[2], the first court in Knox County was held by James White, et al. On April 25, 1796[2], the first County Court was begun under the State Constitution, at which time Nicholas Gibbs was one of the Justices of Peace commissioned by the Governor.

On April 25, 1796, Nicholas Gibbs was given a grant of 100 acres on Beaver Dam Creek (Knox County) for "services in the Continental Line" (Land Grant Records, Raleigh, North Carolina, Book 88, Page 193, Grant 257, dated March 7, 1796). This grant is also recorded in Knox County, Tennessee, Book B, No. 2, Registrar's Office, and his name appears on the Knox County roll of Revolutionary War soldiers as having participated in the Battle of King's Mountain.[3]

Both Nicholas Gibbs and his wife are buried in an old cemetery located on Emory Road, near Harbison's Cross Roads, North Knoxville, Tennessee. In 1915 stones were erected on the graves by some of his descendants.

Judging from the Knox County Court records, Nicholas Gibbs took an active part in civic affairs until his death, which presumably was in 1817, as his will, dated May 19, 1810, was probated in the July, 1817, Sessions Book 2, Page 343, Knox County, Tennessee. This will lists all of his children as follows: seven daughters, Mary, Sarah, Catherine, Silphenia, Elizabeth, "Sophia's heirs," and Barbara; sons, John, David, Jacob, George, Nicholas, and Daniel. At the death of his wife, any remaining estate, land excepted, was to be divided equally among his seven daughters. His sons, John and Nicholas, were appointed executors and witnesses were sons Jacob Gibbs and Daniel Gibbs.

Elvis Scottish Heritage - Scottish Ancestry of Elvis Presley

ELVIS PRESLEY'S FAMILY TREE - Elvis' father Vernon Elvis Presley was born on April 10, 1916 in Fulton, Mississippi. Vernon's parents were Jessie D. McClowell Presley (1896 - 1973) and Minnie Mae Hood Presley (1893 - 1980). Only time Elvis Presley set foot on British soil was March 3, 1960, while Elvis was returning home to USA after finishing his US Army national service. His military flight touched down for refuelling at Prestwick airport in South Ayrshire - which was until 1966 home to an American forces base. With time to kill, Presley and his fellow troops disembarked and mingled with the dozens of fans who were there waiting for him.

Elvis' mother Gladys Love Smith was born on April 25, 1912 in Pontotoc County, Mississippi. Gladys' parents were Robert Lee Smith and Octavia Luvenia "Doll" Mansell. Octavia was said to have received her nickname "Doll" because she was a very beautiful and fragile woman. She gave birth to nine children and was bedridden most of her life, dying at the age of 59 from tuberculosis. Gladys' father Robert was a handsome man with black hair. He was a cotton farmer and an occasional moonshiner. He would often pick up extra jobs to help support his large family. In his fifties, he died suddenly of pneumonia, leaving the then 19-year-old Gladys to find work in Tupelo as a seamstress to help support the family.

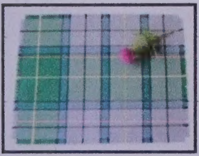
They say from small acorns grown great oak trees and so it was with the story about Elvis's ancestry being traced to Lonmay, Scotland. What started out as a simple idea by the Aberdeen and Grampian Tourist Board became a worldwide search. Such is the power of the name "Elvis Presley".

Allan Morrison met Bill Burk after he read his book "Early Elvis, the Tupelo Years" and was intrigued by Bill's mention of Elvis' Scottish ancestry. Being a Scotsman, Allan started to do his own research. The mythology was that Elvis' family had derived from Paisley in Scotland and that somehow Paisley became Presley. It was common for emigrants to the USA to adopt the name of their home town.

Gladys had black hair and dark eyes. As a youth she liked to play basketball. She also loved music and dancing. Vernon was tall and fair haired. He, too, liked music and had a good singing voice. He also enjoyed working on cars. In Tupelo, Mississippi they met and fell in love. They eloped on June 17, 1933 and married in Ponotoc County. Their son Elvis, destined for fame, and his stillborn twin Jessie were born January 8, 1935 at home in Tupelo. Analysis of the Elvis Name Various authors have researched Elvis' genealogy to varying degrees of accuracy. Although an official genealogy has not yet been completed by Graceland Archives, there is evidence that Elvis' ancestry is from several countries. His heritage includes Welsh, English, Scottish, Irish, French, Dutch, German & Cherokee ancestry



Elvis Presley Tartan

Elvis Scottish ancestry was traced to Andrew Presley who married Elsbeth Leg August 27th 1713 at the Lonmay Church in Aberdeenshire. It was Andrew's son, also called Andrew, who was forced to flee Scotland in 1745 at the time of the Jacobite Rebellion and went to the Americas to settle in South Carolina. It is Andrew Presley who was Elvis Presley's long lost relative. Public records prior to 1700 are very had to find so it was not possible to trace the Presley's back any further. It is speculated that going back further Elvis original ancestors were probably Vikings, particularly in that area of Scotland

Who is Buried at Graceland?

Born May 29 1989, real name, Danielle Riley Keough (goes under the name Riley Keough) the daughter of Lisa Marie Presley & Danny Keough Riley is 5′ 6″ granddaughter of Elvis Presley Fashion Model for designers Dolce & Gabbana Currently Model for Dior Perfume and Victoria Secrets The daughter of Lisa Marie Presley and Elvis Presley's granddaughter made her catwalk debut at the age of 14 in a Dolce & Gabbana show in Milan. Now persuing a career in movies.

Riley Keough Sheds 'Elvis Presley's Granddaughter' Label With Sexy Role on 'The Girlfriend Experience' After making her screen debut in The Runaways the 2010 music biopic about the all-girl rock band starring Kristen Stewart and Dakota Fanning, Keough has been inching her way up to become more than just Elvis Presley's granddaughter. Following small roles (a party girl with a pet pig in Magic Mike and a sex slave in Mad Max: Fury Road) Keough is stepping out with The Girlfriend Experience. Based on the film starring adult film actress Sasha Grey, the new Starz series tells the story of Christine Read (Keough), a Chicago law student who works as a high-end escort. It's seductive and cool, and earning praise for Keough's more approachable take on the Experience's central character.

Riley Keough on the cover of Nylon March 2016 issue. What the 26-year-old The Girlfriend Experience actress had to say: How she knew her husband Ben Smith-Petersen was the one? “We were together eight months and then we got engaged…But I think I told him I wanted to marry him after a week. I was like, ‘Homie… .’ I don’t know, I just had a moment. I don’t over-intellectualize it because it just kind of happened, and I went with my gut there. We both had the same reaction, like, ‘OK, cool.’”

On the level-headed approach to fame her mom Lisa Marie Presley instilled in her: “She was like, ‘I don’t want you growing up like another Hollywood celebrity daughter.’ She was so not about that life, you know? She didn’t really put attention on it. It was there. We’d get photographed doing stuff, but I didn’t see a tabloid until I was 15.”

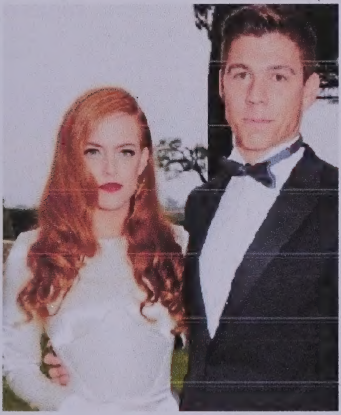
The Girlfriend Experience | Official Trailer |...

On choosing the right moment to enter the industry: “I wanted to grow up before I started acting. I wanted to live my life a bit. I also really don’t like attention on me, so it was kind of coming to terms with all of that.



As Elvis Presley’s granddaughter, Riley Keough’s life was never going to be ordinary. Add to that the modelling career that began when she was 12 with Dolce Gabbana Fashion and a mere three years later has resulted in major Christian Dior fashion and perfume campaigns, and Keough’s life seems like one few of us could even imagine. But that’s not the way the 15-year-old Riley tells it.. she spends more time studying, hanging out with her friends and living the life of an average teenager. Her everyday life, Riley says reads exactly the same way as all her friends with none of the trappings of glamorous extravagance. No elaborate beauty regime (“I like beauty treatments like most girls, but I’m not a slave to them”), no personal shopper (“no way! I love going shopping by myself, and with my friends”), no strict diet (“I try to eat healthy ... but I still love ice cream!”) and no escape from schoolwork (“I get assigned work and keep up with my studies during shootings”)

Danielle is her first name but Riley her middle name, which her family and friends call her. Despite her privileged status as the Shelly Francine Andera Salisbury passed away peacefully on October 9, 2015, in Parker, Colorado. Shelly was born November 10, 1970, to Jimmy and Sandra (Haugen) Andera in Chamberlain, SD. She and her two brothers and one sister lived on the family farm south of Red Lake, graduating from Chamberlain High School in 1989.

Shelly attended Southeast Technical Institute in Sioux Falls graduating with a Nuclear Medicine Technology degree. She also received a Career and Technical Education Degree from South Dakota State University and eventually received a Masters degree from the University of Phoenix. She was an instructor at technical institutes in South Dakota, Colorado, and Arizona. Shelly married Micah Salisbury on December 27, 1997, in Denver, Colorado. The couple has made their home in several states including South Dakota, Arizona, Maryland and most currently Colorado. Shelly and Micah were blessed with two girls-Michaella on October 1, 1999, and Cassandra on June 5, 2004.

Shelly will always be remembered for her love of animals, trying family recipes, and visiting with friends and neighbors. She was an avid Denver Broncos fan and collected their memorabilia. Her greatest joys were her pets and watching her girls grow into young ladies.

Gratefully sharing her life are her husband, Micah Salisbury, two daughters Michaella and Cassandra, her father Jim and Karen Andera of Chamberlain, SD, two brothers, Michael and Mary Andera of Pukwana, SD, David and Dawn Andera of Sioux Falls, SD, and four sisters, Kay and Mark Eden of Sioux Falls, SD, Kara Andera of Rapid City, SD, Jennifer and Joe Every of Denver, CO, and Jessica Bullis of Phoenix, AZ, and her mother-in-law and father-in-law Lynn Salisbury and Dwight Kitchin of Parker, CO, and many aunts and uncles, nephews and nieces, and great nephews and nieces.

William McEwin and Catherine Reynolds

Tennessee to Texas

William McEwin was born in Tennessee on December 19, 1825. He came to Texas in 1835 with John A. Rutherford. William served in the Republic of Texas army, married Catherine Reynolds and had six children. After Catherine's death he married two more times, having a son by each wife. He died in Lamar County, Texas, December 30, 1893.

John A. Rutherford

John A. Rutherford came from Franklin County, Tennessee to Lamar County before it was separated from Red River County. He settled west of John Emberson, who was Lamar County's first permanent home builder. When Lamar County was created in 1840, John A. Rutherford was named its first Chief Justice. He was one of the county's most prominent citizens for many years.

John Rutherford set out for Texas in early October, 1835. With him came his wife Jane, who was with child, their daughter Amanda and sons Clinton and Milton. The children were ages 7, 6 and 2. The family also included at least one other child.

When the Rutherford family arrived in Texas on December 19, 1835 , it was the 10th birthday of little William McEwin. In November of 1832, Rutherford had made bond in court in Franklin County, Tennessee, agreeing "to learn William to read, write and cipher as far as the 5 first rules of the Arithmetic and to be learnt the trade of a saddle tree maker and to have at the end of his term a decent suit of clothes. Mary Ann to be learnt to read and write."

William and Mary Ann McEwin were "bound to John A. Rutherford until they arrive to the age of 21 years William seven years of age on the 19th of December next and Mary Ann 4 years old the 26th of December next."

At the same court session, "Nancy McEwin of the age of 11 years on the 29th day of December next" was bound to James Lusk. The Lusk family later moved to Missouri, according to a story told in A. W. Neville's newspaper column, "Backward Glances" in the Paris News. Neville wrote, "for years neither heard anything of the other. William McEwin married here when he grew up, and in Missouri the sister married Perry Garner.

"When connection was established years afterwards, the sister and brother learned that each has six children, three boys and three girls, and that queerly enough four of the six in each family had almost identical names. The oldest daughter in each family was named Mary. The other girls had different names. The oldest boy in each family was named William Edward. Of the others there were John Aikin and James Robert McEwin, and John Frazier and James B. Garner, a slight variation in the middle name only. It was indeed an unusual coincidence."

Mr. Neville thought it merely coincidence, but it may be an indication that the parents of William and Nancy McEwin were named William Edward and Mary.

John Rutherford kept a journal much of his adult life. Fortunately, parts of his writings have been kept by his family. Some of his journal was reprinted by A. W. Neville in his "Backward Glances" columns in the 1930's. Although William McEwin is mentioned in several places, no mention has been found of his little sister, Mary Ann. She, like so many others of that time, must have died young, probably of a common illness which we no longer fear.

The parents of the McEwin children were not mentioned in the court's papers of indenture. Besides Nancy, William and Mary Ann who were "bound out" in 1832, George W. McEwin was bound to William Lusk in Coffee County, Tennessee. Coffee County is just north of Franklin County, whose boundaries changed around 1836. No age or birth date was given for George McEwin in the court's record which is dated July 4, 1836.

John A. Rutherford's own experiences as an orphan may have made him sensitive to the plight of young William McEwin. John's grandfather was Griffith Rutherford, a prominent citizen from Rowan County, North Carolina, who moved his family to Wilson County, Tennessee, about 1792. John's father was Newton, the seventh of ten children, who died a drunkard on November 2, 1814. John A. wrote that his mother died about 1824, but never mentioned her name in his remaining diaries. John's parents lived in Franklin County, Tennessee, and had two children. John Alfred was born on January 31, 1799. His sister was named Maria. She married Thomas Jefferson Woods and lived in Scottsboro, Jackson County, Alabama.

When the census was taken in 1880, William McEwin gave the birthplace of both his parents as North Carolina. Many of the settlers of the Franklin County area of Tennessee came from North Carolina, including John Rutherford's family. The Rutherfords and McEwins could have been friends of long standing or relatives. If the McEwin children were orphaned, a relative would be the logical choice to care for the young children. It was certainly a generous move for John and Jane Rutherford to take on the care of two more young children, having two of their own already, aged 5 and 3.

Military Service

William McEwin apparently served in the in the Mexican War. The name "William McEwin" appears on the following U.S. army rosters:

Company G	recruited primarily from Lamar and Fannin Counties, was mustered into service on July 2, 1846 and mustered out September 5, 1846.
John Long's Company	recruited primarily at San Antonio was mustered in on May 3, 1847 and mustered out June 2, 1847, age 21.
Company H	recruited primarily at Austin was mustered in June 5, 1847 and out June 15, 1848, age 22.

Marriage and Family

In the 1850 census, William McEwin cannot be clearly identified. The J. A. Rutherford household includes a man, age 24, born in Tennessee, whose name appears to be M C Kin. That is most probably meant to be McKuen, another spelling of McEwin. This census was taken in October, so it should show William McEwin and his bride.

On May 28, 1850, William McEwin married Catherine Reynolds in Lamar County. The marriage license spells William's surname "McEwin" very plainly. On the back is written, "Rite of Matrimony duly performed between the within named parties" signed "James Graham Minister of the Gospel in the M.E.C. south" and dated May 28th 1850.

Catherine Reynolds came from Tennessee. She was born May 22, 1829. She came to Texas in 1849 with her mother Elizabeth Emberson Reynolds, two sisters and four brothers.

By 1853, William McEwin was able to purchase 320 acres of Lamar County land from Isaac Hobbs. The deed is dated June 29, 1853. The actual deed was apparently in the possession of John A. McEwin in 1925.

Two acres of this tract of land were given by William McEwin, in 1857, for an interdenominational meeting house which was named Mt. Tabor. William McEwin, a Cumberland Presbyterian was one of the trustees for Mt. Tabor.

The Methodist trustees bought the Cumberland Presbyterians' interest in Mt. Tabor on April 22, 1872. Part of the price paid for the Mt. Tabor property was "a deed to a certain property known as the New Hope Camp Ground". William McEwin was still a trustee for the Presbyterians and he signed the deed. This signature uses the "McEwin" spelling.

What may have been the first Mt. Tabor cemetery is now in the pasture which was, in 1996, owned by Mr. Mark Buster. It has been known for some time as the Old McEwin Cemetery. The curiosity is that no McEwin is known to have been buried there. Apparently, it acquired the McEwin name because of the land donation for Mt. Tabor. The cemetery was left open to cattle for many years, which ruined most of the markers. With Mr. Buster's help, it has now been fenced and cleaned, but many markers were destroyed before it was restored.

The personal diary of John A. Rutherford records on March 26, 1879, that "William McEwin came here last night and stayed until 10 o'clock today. His visit was very pleasant to Jane and myself. We have promised to go and see him and his wife and children this spring."

Catherine Reynolds McEwin died April 27, 1880 of dysentery. She was 49 years old, according to the 1880 Mortality census of Lamar County. She was actually nearly 51. Her death was also reported in the St. Louis Christian Advocate, a weekly newspaper of the Methodist church.

On March 2, 1882, William McEwin married Sarah E. Dodson. Sarah Elizabeth had been married to William Seth Dodson, on 22 January 1859, by whom she had five children. Her first marriage was apparently to Hezekiah Reynolds on 17 October 1855. Hezekiah is believed to have been a brother to Catherine Reynolds, William McEwin's first wife. Sarah's son, George W. Reynolds was born about 1857.

The probate records of William McEwin's estate show that a son, Charlie McEwin, was born of this marriage in December 1883. Charlie had two daughters: Mable Eads and Helen McCullough.

The marriage of William McEwin and Sarah Dodson apparently ended in divorce. The district court records which would prove this were destroyed in the last great fire in Paris. A paper in the probate file for William McEwin states that after his father's death, Charlie McEwin was living with his mother. The 1900 census shows Charlie McEwin living with Sarah Dodson, age 61. Charlie was then 16, on June 1, 1900.

William McEwin married once more before his death. His third wife was Sarah A. Faubion. They were married on September 26, 1883. The only child of that marriage was Perry Marvin McEwin, who was born in 1885.

Sarah A. Faubion was the daughter of Spencer Faubion of Tennessee, born about 1805, and his wife Luvinia, also born in Tennessee about 1817. Sarah was born in Tennessee about 1842, and came to Texas with her family who lived in Lamar County in 1880. They are found in the 1880 census of E.D. 73, #201/211 p 23.

William McEwin died December 30, 1893. He left no will, but his estate was administered by J. F. Garner. His third wife, Perry's mother, appears to have died before that time, as he "left no widow surviving him".

Children

William and Catherine McEwin had six children. In order of their births they were:

Mary Elizabeth	1853 - 1880	m. 1st Joel Harrell, 2nd John L Phillips
Sarah Elizabeth	3 Aug 1855 - 17 March 1901	m. James Brown Dodson

William Edward McEwin

William Edward McEwin

William Edward McEwin was born 24 Dec 1860 and died 10 Jan 1940. He married first Virginia Wooldridge, second Annie Farrow Keys and third Bertie Gamel Foster.

His first wife, Virginia Lee Wooldridge was a descendant of Daniel Boone. She was born to Thomas J Wooldridge and Luticia Bryan on 16 June 1862 and died 22 Feb 1894, leaving three children. William was unable to maintain the family and the children went to live with relatives.

The children of William E. McEwin and Virginia Wooldridge were James Weaver, Effie and Alice.

Alice,Weaver, Effie McEwin

John Aiken McEwin

John Aiken McEwin was born 19 Sept 1864 and died 2 Oct 1938. He married m. 1st Alice Etta Bell Click 2nd Elizabeth Agnes McArthur.

James Robert McEwin

James Robert McEwin was born about 1868 and died after 1895. He was a music teacher. He was killed in Arkansas, according to a family story. Annie McEwin, the widow of Edgar McEwin reported that James was mistaken for someone else and shot as he got off a train. His belongings were shipped back to his brother, John, whose family had them for a long time afterwards. John was Annie McEwin's father-in-law.

2004

After graduation, I went to Grossmont College and graduated in 1967. Then went on to SDSU and graduated in 1971 with a degree in Recreation Therapy. I worked in the mental health unit at Mercy Hospital and became a supervisor of other therapists on the geriatric team.

I married Michael Dennis Chlarson who graduated from San Diego High School in 1960 and we had two children: Aimee Bridget born in 1975 and Emilie Janeane born in 1978. Mike and I were divorced in 1981.

I moved to L.A. county and worked as a manager of a psychiatric rehabilitation unit, supervising 22 therapists from all different professions. After that I ran a free-standing drug rehab in Downey and an employee assistance program for about 50 corporations on contract. From there I moved myself and my girls to Oregon, where I was the Administrative Director for psychiatric and chemical dependency inpatient units in Corvallis Oregon at Good Samaritan Hospital.

I returned to California in 1990 and was the Administrator at San Bernardino Community Hospital of three inpatient psychiatric units and an inpatient chemical dependency unit. I also ran a psych emergency team from the E.R. and developed an employee assistance program for my corporation facilities.

I returned to San Diego in 1996 and work for Episcopal Community Services.

ECS is a faith based social service agency with programs for homeless, addicts, mentally ill and domestic violence shelters. I currently am an educator and testor for HIV Counseling. I go to the various SD county Drug and Alcohol funded sites and provide education and testing to clients. I also provide prevention information and referrals for those who test postitive.

I previously ran a court ordered drug diversion program for them and before that was an educator and supervisor for a county contracted DUI program. Originally, I was one of their grantwriters and did some case management for the homeless program for chronically mentally ill. I enjoy my work and always feel good about helping whatever way I can with the various clients I have.

My daughters are both working for the phone company in Sacramento. They make twice as much money as me and are happy with their jobs. Aimee is divorced and has a six year old son: Josiah; the light of my heart. Emilie lives alone with her four cats!! I go up to see them about 4 or 5 times a year, but I miss them a lot. I thought about moving to be nearer them, but there is no place like San Diego; I don't want to leave.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone at the reunion and catching up on all the things people have been doing all these

Birth:	Dec. 3, 1926 Texas County Oklahoma, USA
Death:	Dec. 20, 2006 Amarillo Potter County Texas, USA

Clarence Lincoln Hershey, 80, passed away on Dec. 20, 2006, at Baptist St. Antony Hospital in Amarillo.

Clarence was born on Dec. 3, 1926, the son of Elijah and Sadie Mabel Remling Hershey, at the family homestead, 3 and 1/2 miles north of Hooker. He was the youngest of 10 children.

Clarence overcame several obstacles early in his life, polio in his teens and rattlesnake bite in his mid 20s. The polio did not keep him from saving his country during WWII. He was inducted into the Army before finishing high school and after serving in Korea, he came back and finished high school and went on to business college at Chillicothe Business College in Chillicothe, Mo.

Clarence married Lois Jean Arnold (Jeanne) on June 29, 1956, and they have made Hooker their home ever since. Two children were born into this union, Michael Brent Hershey and Susan Margery Hershey Witt.

Mike married Valerie Duncan and they have three children, Michael Zane, Andrea Lynn and Kurt Logan Hershey.

Susan has two children, Aaron Kyle and Lane Elijah Witt.

The two children and the five grandchildren were clarence's main focus in life. The pleasure derived from attending everything these children were involved in could not be measured or the pride he had in each one of them.

Clarence's working life involved working for Tri-County Electric after returning from military service and then Dorchester Gas Producing Co. In 1966, Clarence and Jeanne opened the OTASCO Store, which they operated for 26 1/2 years. Clarence helped set up and worked for the local Duckwall store, and worked for H&H Crop Service part time. He also farmed in the 1960s.

Clarence, earlier in life, was involved in the Chamber of Commerce, Little League ballclubs, PTA and was a faithful member of the Church of Christ for 50 years.

He loved the New Mexico mountains and to fish, hunt and play all kinds of games with family. He had a really unique sense of humor and especially beating his sister-in-law, Lois Hershey, in dominoes.

Family ties were very strong with Clarence and he will be greatly missed by friends and family. His church family was inspired by his dogged determination to keep attending services as best he could even as it steadily became harder.

Clarence left this life with a quiet dignity we would all do well to emulate. The people who cared for Clarence came to love him just as the family who faithfully ministered to him.

Clarence is survived by his wife of 50 years, Jeanne; son and daughter-in-law, Michael and Valerie Hershey; daughter, Susan Witt; five grandchildren, Aaron Kyle and Lane Elijah Witt; Michael Zane, Andrea Lynn and Kurt Logan Hershey; sister, Hazel Pittman and sister-in-law, Lois Hershey.

He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers, Eldon, Roy and Ralph Hershey; five sisters, Helem Eagleton, Nellie Hill, Esther Dammen, Edythe and Ruby Hershey. Also suviving are many caring nephews and neices and other family members.

Funeral services will take place at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 23, 2006, at the Hooker Church of Christ with John Maynard and Casey LaValley officiating. Interment will follow in the Hooker Cemetery under the direction of Roberts Brothers Funeral Home Inc. of Hooker. Memorials are suggested to the Hooker Fire Dept. Fund or the Hooker Ambulance Association or the "In Search of the Lord's Way" television ministry, and may be left at the Roberts Brothers Funeral Home Inc., PO Box 745, Hooker, OK 73945.

friends easily. She certainly knew the true meaning of love and demonstrated it with great style and sincerity. Until the time of her death, she was admired – almost with awe – for the poetry she continued to recite from memory. Pastors and members from her Sunday School classes were inspired on many occasions by her Bible knowledge and by beautiful poems and memorable quotes of others that she recited. Immediately prior to her move from Clemson to Athens, members of her Sunday School class planned a surprise party for her. When she arrived and entered the Quisenberry's home, not only was she surprised by the party itself, but also by all class members wearing hats in her honor. Going-away gifts from class members included a new hat, scarf, and memory book with many photos.

Hazel is preceded in death by her husband Ulen Grant Pittman; her parents, father Elijah Hershey, mother Mabel Hershey Tarrant and stepfather Ora Tarrant; her brothers Eldon Frank Hershey, Roy Daniel Hershey, Ralph Elijah Hershey, and Clarence Lincoln Hershey; and her sisters Elva Helen Eagleton, Edith Marie Hershey, Nellie Mae Hill, Ruby Irene Hershey, and Esther June Dammen.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law Aaron Kent Pittman and Carmen from Adairsville, Ga., her daughter and son-in-law Gayle Pittman Noblet and Ray from Athens, Ga., three grandsons and their wives, Nicholas Hershey Noblet from Charleston, S.C., Aaric Kent Pittman and Lurie from Smyrna, Tenn., and Jared Raymond Noblet and Kati from Dallas, Ga., one granddaughter Chaille Alisha Sullivan and her husband Matthew from Midland, Ga., and five great-grandsons Aedin and Reece Pittman from Smyrna, Tenn., Emerson and Preston Sullivan from Midland, Ga., and Kaden Jack Noblet from Dallas, Ga. Other beloved family members include her sisters-in-law Jeanne Hershey from Hooker and Lois Hershey from Coffeyville, Kan., and half-brother George Tarrant and wife Donna from Roseburg, Ore.

The Hershey family was a very close-knit family, with nephews and nieces and their families playing a major part in Hazel's life. Included are Mike and Valerie Hershey from Hugoton, Kan., Susan Hershey Witt from Las Vegas, Nevada, M.R. and Christy Hershey from Coffeyville, Kan., Jim and Rhonda Hershey from Belton, Texas, David and Kathy Hershey from Coffeyville, Oteka Hershey Aude (deceased), VeAnne Hershey Stowell from Temple, Texas, Norman Eagleton from Sugar Land, Texas, Ralph Dwayne and Jenelle Hill from Hooker, James and Lorna Hill from Hooker, Dale Hill from Caldwell, Texas, Lynn Hill from Earth, Texas, Devon Hill (deceased) and Brenda from Hooker, Danny and Pat Hershey from Fowler, Colo., Curt Mundy from Ireland, Tammy Mundy Reeves from Medford, Ore., and Rosalie Fishback from Henderson, Nevada.

Just as special were her great-nephews and niece from the Hooker/Hugoton area, Michael Zane Hershey, Andrea Lynn Hershey, Kurt Logan Hershey, Aaron Kyle Witt and Lane Elijah Witt (whom she cared for and loved in her home for four years as an infant/toddler).

She was beloved for 46 years by her first church family at First Baptist Church in Hooker, for 18 years by her former church family at First Baptist Church in Clemson, S.C., and for four and a half years by her current church family at First Baptist Church in Athens, Ga., and her many friends at Lanier Gardens/Talmadge Terrace retirement facility in Athens, Ga.

Funeral services were at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 9, 2009 at the First Baptist Church in Hooker, with Brother Eddy Scoggins officiating. Interment will be in the Hooker Cemetery directed by Roberts Brothers Funeral Home, Inc. in Hooker, OK.

Birth:	Jun. 14, 1911 Hooker Texas County Oklahoma, USA
Death:	May 1, 2009 Atlanta Fulton County Georgia, USA

Mary Hazel Pittman, 97, of Atlanta, Ga., formerly of Hooker, passed away May 1, 2009 in Atlanta.
Mary Hazel Hershey Pittman was born to Elijah and Mabel Remling Hershey on June 14, 1911, at Hooker, Okla. She graduated from Hooker High School in 1930, where she excelled academically and participated in basketball, tennis, and track; she was honored to be chosen as HHS football queen during her sophomore year. Greatly influenced and inspired by Mrs. Dobson, one of her teachers at HHS, Hazel continued to read and learn throughout her life, all the while sharing her wisdom and love of poetry with others.
Hazel married Ulen Grant Pittman on July 28, 1938. To that union were born two children, Aaron Kent and Ruby Gayle. She began working at the soda fountain in Voiles Drug Store for Cliff Voiles in 1930. She continued working at the drugstore (then Grey's Rexall Drug Store) with Mike Grey over a 21-year period (beginning in 1952 and until 1973) and then with Art Bohlman until May 23, 1980, when the fountain was closed and she retired. Eight years later (1988), she moved to South Carolina, to be near her daughter and family in Central/Clemson and nearer to her son and family in Georgia.

She was a member of the Hooker First Baptist Church for 46 years, during which time she was very active in Women's Missionary Circle and other church functions. On Sunday morning, Hazel and her children could always be seen walking the three blocks down the street from home to church. But she was best known for her love for the children she taught in the 4- and 5-year old Sunday School class for a period of 24+ years. Several former members of those classes continued to write to Hazel after she moved to SC and then GA, with flowers being sent to her on occasion. When she last visited Hooker during June 2003, she celebrated her 92nd birthday with family and friends. During her week-long visit there, many friends (including her former Sunday School students) stopped by to see her. She loved to bake, especially making cookies for her children/grandchildren and their friends.

While living in Hooker, she was a wonderful neighbor to Mary and A.D. Brawner, Cloyd and Nettie Craft, Mary and Dee Gill, Adolph Matter, and Floe Baker. Hazel loved living and made friends easily. She certainly knew the true meaning of love and demonstrated it with great style and sincerity. Until the time of her death, she was admired – almost with awe – for the poetry she continued to recite from memory. Pastors and members from her Sunday School classes were inspired on many occasions by her Bible knowledge and by beautiful poems and memorable quotes of others that she recited. Immediately prior to her move from Clemson to Athens, members of her Sunday School class planned a surprise party for her. When she arrived and entered the Quisenberry's home, not only was she surprised by the party itself, but also by all class members wearing hats in her honor. Going-away gifts from class members included a new hat, scarf, and memory book with many photos.

Hazel is preceded in death by her husband Ulen Grant Pittman; her parents, father Elijah Hershey, mother Mabel Hershey Tarrant and stepfather Ora Tarrant; her brothers Eldon Frank Hershey, Roy Daniel Hershey, Ralph Elijah Hershey, and Clarence Lincoln Hershey; and her sisters Elva Helen Eagleton, Edith Marie Hershey, Nellie Mae Hill, Ruby Irene Hershey, and Esther June Dammen.

She is survived by her son and daughter-in-law Aaron Kent Pittman and Carmen from Adairsville, Ga., her daughter and son-in-law Gayle Pittman Noblet and Ray from Athens, Ga., three grandsons and their wives, Nicholas Hershey Noblet from Charleston, S.C., Aaric Kent Pittman and Lurie from Smyrna, Tenn., and Jared Raymond Noblet and Kati from Dallas, Ga., one granddaughter Chaille Alisha Sullivan and her husband Matthew from Midland, Ga., and five great-grandsons Aedin and Reece Pittman from Smyrna, Tenn., Emerson and Preston Sullivan from Midland, Ga., and Kaden Jack Noblet from Dallas, Ga. BRUCETON MILLS — The Preston County Board of Education is officially on the path toward placing an excess levy proposal before the voters in May.

At their meeting at Bruceton School on Monday, Dec. 18, board members voted to place the yet-to-be-determined levy on the ballot.

The Preston County Board of Education votes to put the levy on the May ballot. Details of the levy have not been finalized.

"This vote only puts the levy on the ballot," board member Jack Keim said. "The details of the levy call need to be determined."

The school board will now meet in several sessions over the next month to work out details of the levy plan in time for a final approval Jan. 22. Paperwork must be submitted to the county clerk's office by Feb. 1 for the measure to be included in the May election.

The next levy discussion and work session is planned for 6 p.m. Jan. 3 in the county board offices meeting room. Public input is being sought at that meeting.

"I would like to see residents from across the county — those against and for the levy," Superintendent Stephen Wotring said. "I would also like to see our administrators, teachers and parents at the meeting. Everyone is welcome."

Bright debuts solo CD, gives proceeds to Food for Preston

by Cynthia McCloud
CORRESPONDENT

KINGWOOD — Karen Bright has blended two of her passions — singing and feeding people — in her first solo CD, "Karen Sings Patsy Cline."

The CD can be obtained for a $10 donation to Food for Preston, a non-profit organization that helps secure food, funding and volunteers for the county's 10 food pantries. Bright is the group's treasurer.

Bright explained she cannot sell her renditions of Cline's songs because of copyright rules. However, she can give them away.

Bright is known throughout Preston County as a West Virginia University Extension Service Nutritional outreach instructor and as an entertainer.

"There are so many people in Preston County who use the pantries," she said. "I teach cooking classes to them to help them stretch their dollars."

Food for Preston Director Tammy Laney said 6 percent of Preston's 30,000 residents visit a food pantry every month year-round. They serve 1,700 people monthly — and that number jumps to 2,040 at Thanksgiving and Christmas.

"How wonderfully generous Karen is, not only for donating the money she has raised from the sale of her CD, but she is generous with her time," Laney said. "Her wonderful generosity and her know-how here in Preston County have allowed Food for Preston to continue for all these years."

Bright sees it as a practical solution to a problem to buy shelves or freezers; it's harder to have money to purchase meat or other proteins," Bright said. "This is my best way of being able to put cash in the hands of the pantries so they can spend it on what they need."

On the CD, Bright performs some of Cline's biggest hits, including "Crazy."

"My favorite is 'Walking After Midnight' and I like how that turned out on the CD," Bright said. "I sing 'Always' because it is my mom's favorite."

Bright's mother, Willielee Brown, who lives in Colorado Springs, took the photos for the CD jacket.

The 16 songs on the album include one Bright wrote, titled "The Hills of West Virginia Call Me Home."

"I love West Virginia so much," she said. "When I came here, I always felt like I belonged here. When I chose to move here (in 1988,) I felt like I had lived here my entire life. It's home to me. I wanted to portray that in the song."

Bright's father, Benjamin Hunter Brown, grew up in Fairmont, and that is part of the reason the state is so close to Bright's heart.

"When my father died (in 1996) it was very heartbreaking for me," she said. "I realized, being in West Virginia, I can look around at the mountains and the rivers and the valleys and be a part of what he was a part of, and it doesn't make me feel so sad."

Bright's husband, Matthew, harmonizes with her on that song. He plays guitar, bass guitar, mandolin and clawhammer-style banjo in their band.

Karen Bright of the Preston County band The Ole Lady and the Boys has released her first solo CD, a collection of Patsy Cline songs plus an original composition titled "The Hills of West Virginia Call Me Home." Bright is offering the album for a $10 donation to Food for Preston, a non-profit organization for which she is treasurer.

local band J.C. and the Boys and a Girl. After front man J.C. Hollis passed away, the band changed its name to The Ole Lady and the Boys. Matthew's pet name for Karen is "Ole Lady."

The band backed Bright when she performed her Cline repertoire at a concert Sept. 8, drawing the largest crowd the Preston Community Arts Center has ever seen, said Executive Director JoAnn Peterson. Then, also, Bright requested that her share of the take — $800 — go to Food for Preston.

"We've had over 125 before, but we've never had to turn people away until then," Peterson said. "Everyone who knows Karen loves her and many people are fans of Patsy Cline. Put the two together, and you have a winning,

The audience clamored for CDs and motivated Bright to make one at Zone 8 Recording Studio in Granville.

Next, they are talking about making a Christmas album, and the band wants to record a gospel album.

Bright has been singing almost her whole life.

"My first solo was when I was 4 in preschool," she said, because "I was the loudest singer and I was on pitch. I sang 'In Your Easter Bonnet' at a nursing home. I never stopped singing."

In high school, Bright was in madrigal and show choirs. And she studied with a woman who went on to sing at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York and have an opera career.

Cline's music was also part of her childhood.

tening to an eight-track tape in the station wagon," Bright said.

They had diverse musical taste — from classic country by Loretta Lynn and Dottie West to Lawrence Welk and big bands.

"My dad liked Dixieland jazz; my mom liked Hawaiian music."

As Bright developed her own tastes, she sampled Anne Murray and Karen Carpenter and Kay Starr. But she can most relate to Patsy Cline.

"My voice is in a lower register and so was hers.

"Patsy wasn't just country," Bright said. "She was known as a torch singer. She sang big band, too, and bluesy jazz. She was a diversified artist."

House bill just expands right to concealed carry

One of Barry Wendell's points in a recent letter to the editor (DP-Sunday) was the recent passage of a bill through the U.S. House of Representatives that would allow anyone with a concealed-carry permit to also carry a concealed weapon in any state that allows concealed carry.

Wendell, like all others in the anti-gun establishment, is making a big deal out of something that is basically a non-factor.

Christmas i

by Pastor Barry Kimbrough
KINGWOOD SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

Kimbrough

In 1867, an American visited Cuba on a trip he would never forget. Because a revolution was stirring, he soon found himself arrested as a spy and condemned to death. His background was British, but he had immigrated to the United States, where he earned citizenship. Unfortunately, the efforts of consuls from both countries failed to free him from the Cuban prison.

On execution day, the black-hooded prisoner was led to the place where he would stand before a firing squad. When the guns were raised, American and British consuls quickly ran and covered him with their nations' flags. The captain was about to give the order to shoot, but he knew that under these circumstances, such an order would invite war. Instead, he looked away, allowing the foreign officials to rescue the man and arrange for his return to America.

He was the recipient of last-minute good news that saved his life, and it came in the visible form of two flags, Old Glory and the Union Jack.

In a much greater way, the Christmas story is the ultimate good news today. This is the first thing said by the angel: "Fear not: For behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy," (Luke 2:10). He did not say, "I bring you good advice." The gospel is not a list of rules, or even a list of beliefs. It is a person with a message of hope.

Why is the gospel such good news?

Because it reveals a Savio "For unto you is born this d in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord," (Luke 2:11.)

You and I — like the man in Cuba — are stuck in a hopeless predicament with no way of escape. We are all guilty of disobeying God's la in small ways or bigger way Whether we have committe the "small" sins of gossip, white lies and greed, or the "big" sins of crime that get locked up, we all stand guilt before the judgment bar of God. We face never-ending banishment, eternal death.

There is no hope unless someone intervenes.

That someone is Jesus. H brings two flags to cover us the flag of the blood of Chri and that of the Word of God When we trust Him, we are covered by the two banners and rescued from eternal darkness. Our salvation is secure and peace returns.

Mary Jane Ham

June 15, 1929 - October 12, 2017

EL CAJON — Mary Jane Ham, a resident of El Cajon since 1933, passed away at UCSD Thornton Hospital on October 12, 2017. Her family was by her side. Mary was born in La Crosse, Wisconsin, at St. Anne's Hospital on June 15, 1929 to Winifred Edith and Duncan McKenzie; she would be the second of four children.

Mary is survived by her son Robert Ham, brother James McKenzie, her two granddaughters Michelle Ham and Carolyn Wright and great-granddaughter Betty Wright with another great-grandchild to arrive in November, and daughter-in-law Joan Ham, sister-in-law Gail McKenzie and a beautiful collection of nieces, nephews and friends, all East County residents.

Mary was preceded in death by her husband of 60 years George James Ham, Sr., her son George James Ham, Jr., sisters Margaret Greeson and Catherine Cunningham.

Upon settling in El Cajon, Mary attended Santee Elementary School. She subsequently attended the Academy of the Little Flower at San Luis Rey after the passing of her father and then El Cajon Grammar School where she graduated from the eighth grade in June of 1943. Mary subsequently attended Grossmont High School and graduated on June 13, 1947. Two years later, Mary would meet and marry her husband of 60 years, George James Ham. Together they lovingly raised their two sons George Jr., born in 1952, and Robert, born in 1957. Mary oversaw matters at home while George Sr. along with his brothers built and operated what would become a formidable San Diego construction firm, Ham Bros. Construction, Inc. Mary will be remembered without a doubt for her unfailing devotion to her husband and children and her love and kindness to all those around her, a strong yet deeply kind and tender woman.

Visitation will be on October 23, 2017 between 4:00 and 8:00 PM at the El Cajon Mortuary, 684 South Mollison, followed by graveside services at the Singing Hills Memorial Park on October 24, 2017 at 10:00 AM. A reception will follow at Sycuan Resort. The Ham family wishes to acknowledge the extraordinary care and love shown by the UCSD Thornton Hospital second floor doctors, nurses, assistants and hospice staff during her sudden, yet short illness. She wanted for nothing.

need volunteers who are veterans, who may have first-hand practice navigating the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

It's not exactly what you'd think a public library's mission would include.

"It's not just about checking out books anymore," said Gary Klockenga, manager of the government documents and periodicals collection at the Central Library. "We are close to where homeless people are; they are living on the streets near us. They come to us for other things, so this is a way to get our foot in the door" to help them.

An estimated 1,054 veterans are homeless in San Diego County, according to the yearly count in January. That's about 12 percent of the overall homeless population.

the library.

The picture used to be worse for vets. A national VA campaign has led to a 29 percent decrease in the homeless veteran population in San Diego County since 2013.

But challenges remain, especially as veterans age. Nearly half of the county's unsheltered homeless vets served in the window after Vietnam and before the Iraq and Afghanistan conflicts.

One recent client at the library was Anthony Graham, a 54-year-old Marine Corps veteran who is nearly blind

"It might be somewhere in there," he told her.

The retired Army nurse carefully picked through the pile. She started making calls.

"I'm a volunteer at the veterans resource center at the Central Library, and I'm trying to help a homeless veteran. He's been working with a person by the name of … ," Tancredi started out, in a smooth, business-like voice.

Four calls later, she found the correct person, and Graham straightened out his conflicting appointments.

It was a small victory in that three-hour shift for the married volunteers.

But there was one day, a

Beauty and style are evident throughout this appealing one-story home. The stucco facade is accented by decorative quoins and window dressings. The open, expansive design of Plan F-74, by HomeStyles Designers Network, has 1,368 square feet of living space.

Beyond the sidelighted entry, the large living room is bordered on two sides by exotic arched openings. The focal point is a rustic, two-sided fireplace with a brick hearth.

The bayed eating nook overlooks and provides access to a covered backyard porch with brick columns. The secluded master suite has a relaxing sitting area. The master bath features a skylighted whirlpool tub and a separate shower.

Two secondary bedrooms along the hall have walk-in closets and share a unique compartmentalized bath.

Statistics: Design F-74 has a vaulted entry, living room, dining room, kitchen, an eating room, utility room, three bedrooms and three full baths, totaling 2,637 square feet of living space. The plan is available with 2x4 exterior wall framing and a standard basement foundation. A three-car garage provides 704 square feet of space.

Year-old back copies of the House Plans that have run in the weekly Home section are available at the Gazette Telegraph's front desk, 30 S. Prospect St. Plans cost $1 and are available while supplies last.

Herbert Charles Ham, Sr.

Posted 2013-10-11 by Sharla

Owens Livingston Mortuary,
Show Low, Arizona

Herbert Charles Ham, Sr.
October 1, 1932 - October 10, 2013

Herbert Charles Ham, Sr., Passed away on Wednesday, October 9, 2013 at Sierra Blanca Care Center in Lakeside, Arizona. He was born on October 1, 1932 to Elmer Ham and Anna McLellan Ham at their home in Phoenix, Arizona. He married Barbara Jean Merrill on November 26, 1954 in Superior, Arizona.

Herbert was a native Arizonan who was raised in Peoria, Arizona. He and Barbara raised their family in Phoenix, Arizona. He was a member of the Air National Guard (Active Duty) and he received an Honorable Discharge in 1953. He worked for Mountain Bell from 1953 to 1984. Upon retirement he built his dream home in Show Low, Arizona and moved there in 1990. His favorite activities were golfing, growing roses and family life.

He is survived by his wife: Barbara, 3 children: Kari (Lynn) Spire, Herbert (Myrna) Ham, Jr., and Rodney Ham. 14 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren. 3 sisters: Winiefred, Francis and Kathy. He is preceded in death by a son: Randy Ham.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 19, 2013 at 1 pm at Owens Livingston Mortuary White Mountain Chapel, 320 N. 9th St. in Show Low, Arizona. The family requests donations be made to Sierra Blanca rather than sending flowers.

The Parent's Voice Book Storyteller.

This is the storytime buddy that lets you prerecord any picture book so a child can hear it read in your voice. Ideal for loved ones who can't be there at bedtime or story hour, the device clips to the cover of any illustrated hardback or paperback and records your voice as you read the book page by page; you can also insert personal messages or include your own sound effects or other special touches. The recorder recognizes each page visually, so if a child skips to the end or flips back to the beginning, the narration switches accordingly. The device stores up to 250 minutes of audio—about 50 books—and comes with a USB cable for backing up the recordings on a computer. Three AA batteries (included) power the device for up to 30 hours. 10" W x 8" H x 2" D. (1 1/4 lbs.)

Lifetime Guarantee

The Parent's Voice Book Storyteller comes with The Hammacher Schlemmer Lifetime Guarantee at no additional charge. If this product ever disappoints you, for any reason, you may return your Hammacher Schlemmer purchase for exchange, credit, or refund.

Should you have any questions, we are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Please call 1-800-321-1484 to speak with a product specialist or email us at customerservice@hammacher.com to receive a response within one hour.

THE LIFE OF WILLIAM ALEXANDER HAM, SR.

William Alexander Ham, Sr. was known as Bill a handsome man, and son of Joel W Ham and Nancy Gilbert born on a Monday 01 July 1833 ~~1933~~ in Tennessee. ~~Members of the family~~ ~~Decedents~~ Descendants of William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) always stated that Bill was born in Tennessee in Duck River a small community in Hickman county or on the banks of the Duck River.

The Duck River branches off the Tennessee River in Humphries County and flows eighty one miles, snaking through the counties of Hickman, Marshall and Maury. Then the river wanders through Bedford County passing through the town of Shelbyville, ending at the Normandy Lake just inside Coffee County. He could have been born along this river at any point since records do not seem to exist to give us an exact location. Bill's father Joel W Ham was in Bedford County in the 1930 Federal Census Report, and it is believed by the family that Bill's parents meet and married in Bedford County, Tennessee making ~~this~~ information about Bill's birth place more reliable.

When William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) was about four years old, in December 1937 his father, Joel W. Ham born 1805 moved the family, which consisted of wife Nancy Gilbert Ham born 1812, daughter Julie/Julia/Julian born 1832 and son William Alexander born 1833 to San Augustine County, Texas. They later moved to Shelby County, Texas where they were living in 1850 (Census Report.) Bill was then 17, a farmer and living at home with his parents and siblings.

Two years later at age 19 William Alexander met and married 14 year 4 month old Margret Emely Martin, daughter of Henry R Martin SR. and Eleanor (Dooley) Martin on 22 January 1852 in Gatesville, Coryell County, Texas.* The couple built their home along the bank of Sweetwater Creek. The land today is located outside of Comanche, Comanche County, Texas north of town about 7.4 miles on road FM 2247. (Turn right on a country road & is past Duncan Creek Bridge, an old iron & wood bridge, on the bank of Sweetwater Creek.) There in this beautiful spot in young Texas, among hostile Indians Bill and Margret built a log cabin including their furniture, raised eleven children, three girls and eight boys, farmed, raised cattle and died.

In all census reports Bill claims his occupation as farmer, but he also raised cattle. On a tax report in 1873, Comanche County, Texas, it was recorded that Bill owned 112 cattle and a horse proving the family stories that Bill was a Farmer, cattleman and carpenter. In early Texas History, cattle roamed wild over the whole area. Texans soon learned to gather them, operating cattle ranches, instead or along with farms. In that day cattle ranches furnished. The first brand logged in the county was recorded by Bill's wife' (Margret Martin Ham) brother-in-law Kin (Kenneth McKinzie) on 02 June 1856. Kenneth McKinzie was later killed in an Indian attack.

Trying to explain myself

~~Wm. A. Ham was a Carpenter as well as a farmer & stockraiser. It was reported by the grandchildren of Wm. Alexander Ham~~ because you may want to rethink this

The people of the later town of Comanche first built a court house south of Comanche in a place they tired to call "Cora (the name was already being used + request was refused). The name of the courthouse is still called "Cora Courthouse" 1856-1859. It was small & made of logs, and in later years after two other moves rests outside the fourth courthouse in the town of Comanche on the edge of the town square. After using the old Cora court-house a short time a man donated land for a town north of Cora where Wm. A. Ham (as reported by his decendants) cut the first

W.A. & Margrett Ham share one large attractive headstone. Is standing near 1 tall tree.

Birthplace of W.A. Ham is in question. All that is known is that W.A. was born at Duck River, Tennessee. This river flows 81 miles, snaking through Hickman, Marshall, Muary, Bedford & just inside Coffee Counties. He could of been born along this river at any point. Records do not seem to exist to give us the exact location. However, because W.A.'s father, Joel W. Ham probably met and married his mother Nancy Gilbert in Shelbyville in Bedford County, Tennessee, it is more than likely W.A. was born in or near Shelbyville, Tennessee.

Birthplace of Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham also is in question. Census reports say she was born in Missouri. Her granddaughters state that their mother, Mary Lorene (Gibbs) Ham wrote in her handwriting that Margrett was born at Nunnam, Georgia. Wille Lee (Ham) Brown & Maryalice (Ham) Pittman believe maybe the towns name was misspelled and there is a possibility that Mary L. Ham meant Newnan, Coweta County, Georgia which is about 41 miles south and a little west of downtown Alanta, Georgia.
Atlanta

The Wm. A. & Margrett Ham homestead property is located across the Duncan Creek road (an old iron and wood bridge) on a country road. The property is on the Sweetwater Creek. The Ham family had ½ section of land he had gotten from the government and he settled. The original home was made of logs. Wm. A. Ham's children each received at the time of their marriage or after his death, 40 acres with a house on it. 365 acres is a section which means Wm. A. Ham's ½ section contained 184½ acres. Wm. A. Ham's home was called the Homestead & his son George D. Ham's home was called the homeplace. In 1987 this land is now owned by the Walter G. Mazurek family. The origainal log cabin no longer is standing.

In July of 1915 Margrett E. Ham's oldest son (John Daniel Ham) became the administrator of Margrett's estate. Although she was still living, he claimed she had lost her mind and sent her to live with his brother's family (George D. Ham) in Paducah, Cottle County, Texas where they took her in. John's wife Hattie was very social minded and did not want Margrett to live with them.

(BILL) WILLIAM ALEXANDER & MARGRETT EMELY (MARTIN) HAM-

IT was always Comanche County Cora was town.

Wm. A. Ham- was a carpenter besides a farmer & stockraiser. It is reported by the grandchildren of Wm. A. Ham that he was the person to that cut the first tree for the first Comanche County Courthouse in Comanche, Texas, when Comanche County was changed and reorganized from old Cora, County. The courthouse was made of slim log poles. A trench was dug and the poles set on end similar to a picket fence. The structure had an earthern floor and shake roof. Because of the method of construction, the combination courthouse and jail was called the "Picket" courthouse. It was located southwest of what is now the town square, but near the historic Fleming Oak. Like Cora Picket courthouse had a short life. The Minutes of Commissioners Court for March 20, 1862 simply states: "Whereas on the night of the 15th inst. the courthouse was burned------------- With no further comment on the fire, the court arranged to rent Silas Puckett's building for $65.00 to be used as a district courtroom and clerk's office. J.M. Green was appointed agent to furnish paper, books, and furniture to equip the office. The county clerk was ordered to transcribe or have transcribed the old records of official oaths, bonds, beef tallies, bills of sale, etc., the person performing said task to receive 15c for each and every hundred words transcribed. The original brand register and marriage records are intact. The story is that a hard working clerk took some books home to work after hours and thus saved them from the fire. This courthouse stood from 1859 to 1862. In 1860 the total population was 709 persons.

As a carpenter W.A. Ham made all the furniture for their home. Today (1993) it is known of a small desk in the possession of Randy Salisbury, he had made, which was used by all in the W.A. Ham family. Also in the possession of Randy Salisbury is a desk chair made by George Dallas Ham (son of W.A. Ham) that George made to be used with this desk. Line of succession==William Alexander Ham, Sr.

George Dallas Ham
Herbert Reed Ham
Willie Lee (Ham) Salisbury-Brown
Randy Steven Salisbury

W.A. Ham died 21 Oct 1893. He had went out to the woods or forest to cut wood for the family use. After 3 days he hadn't returned home so a search party was formed to go look for him. It was afraid that maybe indians had attacked him or took him away. He was found leaning against a tree trunk where he had died of a heart attack. He was brought back home and buried at Suggs Cemetery, not far from the family farm.

Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham died 1 Jan 1916. She was living at the time of her death with her 3rd to the youngest child George Dallas Ham and his family, at near Paducal, Cottle County, Texas. Her body was taken back to Comanche, Texas, by train by her son George where she too was buried at Suggs Cemetery.

Suggs Cemetery is located north from the town of Comanche, Texas; by taking FM 2247 7.4 miles. Turn right on a country road for 7/10's of a mile. Turn right for ½ mile. Cemetery is located in the middle of farm land and is enclosed by a wire fence. Do not ever go to this cemetery after a good rain storm as you could get stuck very easily in the mud roads and field.

WILLIAM ALEXANDER HAM (BILL)

AND

MARGRETT EMELY (MARTIN) HAM

Members of the family of William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill), always stated that Bill was born in Tennessee on the Duck River. The Duck River branches off the Tennessee River in Humphries County and flows eighty one miles, snaking through Hickman, Marshall and Muary Counties. Then the river wanders through Bedford County passing through the town of Shelbyville, ending at the Normandy Lake just inside Coffee County. He could have been born along this river at any point, because records do not seem to exist to give us an exact location. However, because Bill's father, Joel W. Ham probably met and married Nancy Gilbert, Bill's mother in Shelbyville in Bedford County, Tennessee, it is more likely Bill was born at or near Shelbyville.

When William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) was about four years old, in December 1837, his father, Joel W. Ham moved the family to San Augustine County, Texas. They later moved to Shelby County, Texas, where they were living in 1850. Bill was 17, and a farmer at the time. Later he became a stockraiser, and a carpenter, nevertheless, only "farmer" was indicated on census reports throughout the years. On a tax report in 1873, Comanche County, Texas, it was recorded that Bill owned 112 cattle and one horse, proving he did raise cattle. This would verify what the family has passed down over the years. Early in Texas History, cattle roamed wild over the whole area. Texans soon learned to gather them, operating cattle ranches, instead of farms. Is this the way Bill became in procession of his herd? The answer to that is "probably". There were to many free head of cattle for a Texan of that day to buy them. Cattle meant wealth to the Texan if he drove them to the right location to sell, thus the cattle drives come into being. The first brand recorded in the county was recorded by Bill's wife's (Margrett) brother-in-law, Kin (Kenneth McKinzie) on 02 June 1856.

Bill (William Alexander Ham, Sr.) met young Margrett Emely Martin, daughter of Henry R. Martin, Sr. and Eleanor (Dooley) Martin, either in Texas or Louisiana. We know that the Joel W. Ham family moved to Louisiana after the census was taken in 1850, and before the registering of the 1860 Census Report. Whether or not their son, William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) went with them to Louisiana before his marriage, is not known. The young pair were married on 22 January 1852, when Margrett was less than fifteen and a half years old.

Just what happened next in their lives we are not sure, but we do know that William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) and his brother-in-law Henry R. Martin, Jr. were the first two settlers on Sweetwater Creek, in Comanche County, Texas. The exact date of their arrival in Comanche County is not known, but family data tells us their first daughter, Margrett Josephine was born at Sweetwater Creek District, Comanche County, Texas on 12 April 1856. She was born in the same cabin as the rest of the children, per-data from family. It is believed that the couple arrived with or about the time as the B.J. Holmsleys family (they were friends), F.M Collier, Joseph Hicks, Jesse Mercer, F.N. Neely families and others in 1853. We do know that Henry R. Martin, Jr. didn't arrive with his family in Comanche until 1859.

Stories of Henry R. Martin, Jr. have him visiting his father, Henry R. Martin, Sr., in Bell County in 1853. Could it be that Henry, Jr. stopped to see his younger sister, Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham in Western Louisiana or Eastern Texas, on his way to Bell County? If so, Margrett and her new husband, Bill might have traveled with him on his journey to the frontier. Bill and Margrett might have also moved to Bell County with Henry R. Martin, Sr., but we have no prove of either. Upon arrival of the young Henry at Henry, Sr.'s, home in Bell County, Texas, Henry, Jr. and Bill might have traveled to the Sweetwater Creek District, in Comanche County, and laid claim to the land. The same year Bill and Margrett must have moved to their new home. This would give the reason why, William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) legally, later claimed to having been in the area of Comanche County, Texas since 1853. William and Margrett Ham are on the 1860 Census Report for Louisiana. It's believed they were visiting Bill's parents. Bill (William Alexander Ham, Sr.) was in Comanche, Comanche County, Texas in 1858 and 1859, because he felled the first tree used in building the first Court House in the town of Comanche, which was started in 1858 and finished in 1859. That Court House was called the "picket house". The logs were cut and split on the site, and set vertically in a ditch, and then covered with the boards also made on the site. The "Picket House" burned down in March of 1862. Only District Court Records and Deeds were saved from the fire. The population of the county of Comanche in 1860 was only 90 men, women and children. However, another source states there were only 61 people in the Comanche area.

Bill's and Margrett's first daughter, Margrett Josephine Ham (Jo), born on 12 April 1856, in the cabin built by Bill, lived, romped, played, laughed, cried, ate, and slept with her other brother's and sister's all their young lives. Margrett gave birth to eleven children:

Margrett Josephine married a school teacher, and after the birth of three of their six children, moved to Amarillo, Texas. The couple lived out the remainder of their lives there.

John Daniel married, had two children, and opened the first lumber yard in De Leon. John served as bank director, and he and his socialite wife lived out their lives in De Leon, Texas.

Nancy Ellen, who was named after her two grandmothers, died when she was just under four years old.

William Alexander, Jr., married, had three children, and lost his young wife. He moved away from his home in Comanche.

Joel Henry, named after his two grandfathers, married and had at least nine children. He fought in the Spanish - American War, 1895 - 1898. He left Comanche, also.

James Edward died just nine days after his birth. His resting place is unknown.

Martha Jane married and had one boy, but she died at the age of twenty two. Martha is buried at Suggs cemetery in Comanche, Comanche County, Texas.

Thomas Franklin married and lived on the land owned by his father and mother. His wife, Mary gave birth to seven children, six of who lived to maturity. Tom was a farmer and a carpenter. The couple lived their lives out in Los Angeles County in California.

George Dallas (this author's grandfather) married, Mary Lorene Gibbs. They had twelve children, who all lived to adulthood. However, they lost their oldest son in World War I. George moved his family away from Comanche several times only to return. George had a green thumb, but he didn't like farming. He worked as a weigh master for many large farms when he wasn't putting in a crop of something or other for himself. The last time he left he moved to Puducah, Cottle County, Texas, then to Colorado, back to Clarendon, Texas, and then in 1932 most of his family moved to the San Diego, California area. Three of the couples children and several or their grandchildren joined the armed forces during World War II.

George and Mary lived their lives out in El Cajon, a town just outside of San Diego.

Luther Edgar died when he was about eleven and a half years old.

Charles David their youngest child never married, he worked hard, and finally moved to Burkburnett, Texas where he worked, and at forty two died.

The creek near where Bill built their log cabin, was called Sweetwater Creek, because of the sweet taste of the water. Just who named the creek is not known, but it was named by the pioneers of the county in the early years. Maybe Bill or Margrett gave it it's name, since they were the only ones living near the creek at that time. It was called the Sweetwater District for years, before Districts became Precincts. Bill being a good carpenter, made all the furniture for the Ham's first home in the Comanche area. As time passed, and the need for more furniture presented itself, he continued to create nice pieces. This leaves us to wonder if he might have made furniture for some of his fellow settlers. One piece of his work, a desk, is still in the family. It's been transferred from creator, William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) to Bill's son, George Dallas Ham, to George's daughter, Freida (Ham) Pool, then to Freida's niece, Willie Lee (Ham) Salisbury-Brown (Herbert Reed Ham's daughter) and to Willie's son, Randy Steven Salisbury, who is in procession of it in the year, 1993. This desk, that was used by Bill's and Margrett's children for school work is still in great shape.

In the first years of settlement the pioneers build their homes out of scrub oaks they cut for lumber, because the closest milled lumber was in Coryell County about 60 or so miles away. Most of the supplies needed to maintain life in the frontier had to be shipped in. The log cabin Bill built for his family was the Ham family home for a long time (called the "Homestead"). All the children were raised in this first structure. Later another house was built, and the log cabin was eventually torn down. The last home built was still standing in 1987. At that time the land and house was owned by a Walter G. Mazurek family. William Alexander Ham, Sr. (Bill) had 1/2 section of land (320 acres) granted to him by the government. The land was divided among the children. Each child received 40 acres and a house. Each of the children sold, at different times, their 40 acres to the oldest son, John Daniel Ham. John left the land to his two children, James Ottis Ham and Willie Vei (Ham) Stockman, when he died.

Most of Margrett's family also moved to the Comanche County area about the same time. Names of members of the families were Ham, Martin, McGuire, McKinzie, and Neil. Life wasn't easy for the settlers that moved to this new area which in the 1850's and 1860's was definitely the "Wild and Woolly West". There were wild animals like bear, panther, deer, wild pig, antelope, buffalo and cattle, and unfriendly Indians roaming free through the forests, and out on the prairie. Comanche County is about 1350 feet above sea level all over the county, except in the southwest corner were it climbs to 1850 feet. Once it was level limestone plain drained by ancient rivers, and the land was created when it rose from the drainage of the ancient Comanche Sea. The soil was rich, and well suited for farming.

Comanche County was created out of Bosque and Coryell Counties. The pioneers generated the small community of Cora, which was located in the Southeast part of Comanche County on the North bank of the South Leon River. Later it was known as the Pettit community, but in 1987 little remained. Devoted individuals interested in the progress of their County built a court house with their own hands. Men like John A. McGuire, Henry R. Martin, Sr., T.C. Frost, John P. Pettit were among the many who helped. Cora served as the County Seat. Three terms of District Court were held in Little Cora, as the court house was later called. There were trials held for theft and murder. Indictments took place for crimes such as unlawfully playing cards, drinking of alcohol on Sunday, having a pistol on his person, rudely displaying a pistol in a public place, seriously threatening to take the life of another, disturbing a congregation gathered for religious worship, and etc. The little court house was full of various activities that were taking place, but it stood strong. In order to save "Little Cora" years after the county seat was moved to the town of Comanche, concerned citizens had "Little Cora" moved to a hill overlooking Lake Eanes and the park. In 1987 it was sitting on the town square in front of the latest court house, and next to the historical "Fleming Tree", the only old tree left on the town square. This tree remained, because with rifle in hand, Mr. Fleming would not allow the tree to be cut down. He said, "that tree had saved his life as a boy, from the Indians.

The above story is one that is the most appealing to one's emotions. However, it's not true. In the year 1854, before Comanche was a town, Mart Fleming first visited the county with his father. At the time, where the court house stands today, was a postoak grove. It was summer so Mart Fleming slept under what is now the famous "Fleming Tree". As the years passed it was used by Mart Fleming and others to tie up their horses.

Many years later, about 1911, when the paving of the Square was started, all the trees were ordered to be cut down. With the threat of using his "No. 10's", which the workmen thought was a 10-guage shotgun, they left the tree standing. Later"Uncle Mart" as he was fondly called at the time, confessed that he wouldn't have shot anyone. He had only meant he would have used his size 10 boots on them.

He came again to the defense of his tree in 1919, when talk was once more spread that the tree should be removed. After these unknowing citizens learned the history of the tree, it remained. When in his 80's Uncle Mart was quoted as saying, "They since have paid due respect to the old live oak". Today "his tree" remains, and the Citizens of Comanche are highly pleased when they see or point out this "Living Memorial" of their earliest heritage.

The new town of Comanche was formed when part of Comanche County was given to create the County of Hamilton. John Duncan gave 240 acres of land on the Indian Creek for the City of Comanche in 1858. The land sits in the middle of the county, and made a good site for the County Seat. The Commissioner's Court accepted Mr. Duncan's offer of the land, and the town was established in 1858. The first courthouse was then built.

The Indians made life miserable for the first settlers, because this was a favorite spot of the Indians. There were plenty of wild animals, berries, nuts, fruits and honey from the "bee trees" to provide food for the tribes. They considered this area their domain. They didn't want to share it with the white man, although they didn't make this a permanent home. The tribes wondered over a year in a large area from Kansas to the North into Northern Mexico to the South. At first the warriors try to scare, intimidate, steal the horses, and scatter the livestock of these intruders. There were so few settlers in the area, and this isolation made it very easy for the Indians to ride in, and steal the settler's horses. These were Kiowa and Comanche Indians. The Comanche Indians had always measured their wealth in horses. The horses were used to trade with the Northern Indians. Later the killing of the settlers began, when the Indians decided they couldn't chase the white man away by taking their horses and livestock. Indian raids continued in Comanche County from its early settlement in 1856, until 1875, when the federal troops rounded up the last few bands of renegades and placed them on a reservation at Fort Sill, Oklahoma under military control.

Another brother-in-law, John A. McGuire built a make shift fort on the Indian Creek near Cora, for the people to gather when the Indians started their raids. On one such occasion, Margrett's two sister's husbands were holding off the Indians until everyone could get to the fort. Mary A. (Martin) McKinzie's husband, Kenneth McKinzie was wounded seriously, his brother and Nancy E. (Martin) McKinzie's husband, James went to help him. James was also wounded, but the two brother made it to the fort. Kenneth hung on all night in terrible pain, but in the morning he passed away. James lived through his ordeal, but unhappily was an invalid all the rest of his life. On another occasion Mary A. (Martin) McKinzie's youngest son, John D. McKinzie, Sr. was captured by the Indians, but he was returned the same day. There is no record as to why they returned him. After Kenneth's death the Indians took all of Mary's stock. Mary married two years later to a man named Jenkins, and they moved to Arkansas. After the threat of the Indians ended the couple returned to Comanche.

The word "Comanche" is the Spanish spelling of the Ute Indian word Komantcia, which meant "enemy" or "one always wanting to fight". A Comanche is a North American plains Indian of Shoshonean stock, who ended in reservations, because they couldn't get along with others.

One Indian story that has remained with the Ham family is about Margrett Emely (Martin) Ham. For their protection the homesteaders made up shopping lists, and only one or two men would go for supplies for everyone in the area. Shopping could take days instead of an hour like it does today. On one occasion when Bill (William Alexander Ham, Sr.) was taking his turn on the journey for supplies, he had to leave his family home alone. After running out of water in the cabin, Margrett decided to gather up the children and go to the creek for a nice fresh pail of water. They were having a nice stroll along the trail in the warm sunshine, when Margrett noticed to her dismay feathers sticking in and out among the brushes along the path. She calmly gathered her children close to her, telling them not to act afraid. Then she continued on to the creek. After filling her pail with the cool water, the small group started back along the same path to the cabin. As they passed an Indian he would fall in behind Margrett and her tiny, very frighten babies. As she moved along more and more of the red men followed staying only a short distant behind them. At the cabin, Margrett put the children in the middle of her bed, and quietly ordered them to stay there. She then turned to face the red men who had followed her into her home with their dirty dogs. With sign language the Indians demanded food. She cooked for the gathering in her spotless home, and held her tongue while she watched them eat with their hands, throwing her prized dishes around, breaking some, and feeding their dogs on her spotless floor.

Much later, after filling their stomachs, to her relief the Indians left, without hurting her or the children (It may be possible that the Indians were Kiowa instead of Comanche). However, her anger at the savages disregard of her home and skimpy belongings bothered her more than anything else did. She cleaned everything with a passion, and last the floor was washed with lye. Only then would she allow herself to rest, and relieve the pressure with tears. Her children remember her as a perfectionist, a very clean perfectionist.

The frontier women were strong and brave ladies. Another story that has traveled through the family showed Margrett as strong, quick thinking, brave and full of life. As a young girl, Margrett was sent on an errand quite a distance from where she lived in Murray County, Georgia, where she grew up. After completing her assigned duty, she swung back onto her horse and headed for home. Much to her distress, and a long two miles from her destination, she encountered a hungry, mean looking cougar. Not wasting any time, she urged her horse into a run. The horse was as anxious as Margrett to get away from this large, wild American cat. However, with the speed this animal possessed it wasn't long until the cat had gained on the frightened pair. Margrett was wearing her favorite hat, but she yanked it from her head, and with all her might she flung it over her shoulder. Detaining this unwelcome traveling companion was her only thought. To her delight the cougar stopped to sniff her pretty head cover. The last she saw of her prized possession the cougar was ripping it to threads. The horse gained only a short distance, and soon the cougar's long strides had him close behind again. Margrett's sweater was the next article of distraction. Her quick thinking in discarding her personal items made it possible for her to arrive home safely. The strip tease probably saved her life.

The Civil War put a stop to the migration into Comanche County. Most of the men who moved to Texas were from the South, so they left to join the confederate army. This left only a few men to defend themselves and their homes against the Indians. In the spring of 1861 Indians came into the County, and stole every horse, which left the settlers without even teams to prepare the fields for crops. They scattered the livestock, and began killing men, women and children. Five wagonloads of flour accompanied by armed guards from Bell County were the only thing that saved the people of Comanche County from starvation. The Martins had many relatives in Bell County, but we can not document who it was that organized the flour delivery into the area. The threat from the Indians grew between the years of 1863 and 1866, and many families moved away.

Many of the settlers hunted wild hogs, and sold them to near by communities. The Texas Longhorn were everywhere, so the settlers drove them to Louisiana for supplies. In order to farm or ranch, settlers had to clear the land of trees and stumps. This was called "Patch" farming. It provided for the settlers needs, but left only a small amount of harvested goods for selling. Roads were few, and during the rainy season the trails would soon have themselves covered with overgrowth again. This meant there was very little commerce in those early years.

Life was hard, but these strong individuals survived, and Comanche grew. Comanche became the supply center for Texas farms and ranches. The town was incorporated in 1873. By 1874 Comanche was the model of a Cowman and Rancher's town, with a population of about one thousand people. Comanche had seven saloons, and the men found relaxation in card games, horse racing and billiards. The women kept themselves busy with household duties, raising children, church socials and quilting bees.

Comanche had it's outlaws, as well, with the most noted being John Wesley Hardin. John Wesley's father was a Comanche Minister, and was held in high regard by the citizens of Comanche. He was thoroughly devoted to religion. He had another son, Joe Hardin who was a practicing lawyer in town.

In 1874, John Wesley Hardin and his friend Jim Taylor appeared in Comanche with a string of race horses. They were wanted for murder in De Witt County at the time, and every Texas Ranger was on the look out for them. After their arrival the pair continued their crime spree by stealing stock from various ranches in Comanche and neighboring Brown County. On a raid on the William's Ranch in Brown County, John Wesley's identity was discovered by Sheriff Charlie Webb.

A few days later a horse racing meet was scheduled, and some of the outlaws horses were to run. Sheriff Webb reckoned this was a good time to appear in town. After winning large sums of money on the races, Hardin and Taylor got very drunk as they made their rounds of the saloons. Friends warned Hardin that Webb was town, but Hardin wouldn't listen. At the saloon on the northwest corner of the square in the town of Comanche there was a shot out. Before Brown County, Sheriff Charlie Webb could draw his gun Hardin shot him four times.

After a stop at Hardin's father's house, the outlaws left town.

At the same time this was going on same Texas Rangers who had been camped at historical "Ranger Springs" east of Comanche came into town and arrested Joe Hardin, Aleck Barrickman, and Anderson. They were jailed in temporary quarters in a house on the northeast corner of the square, because a new courthouse was being built at the time. Guards were posted around the accomplices. About three hundred men from Comanche and Brown Counties rode into the square around two o'clock in the morning. After disarming the guards the mob took the trio three miles southwest of Comanche and hanged them.

It wasn't until 1877 that John Wesley Hardin was arrested by a Texas Ranger in Florida. He was brought to Austin, Texas and jailed. Six Texas Rangers from Company E were sent to bring Hardin back to Comanche. He was tried and sentenced to prison for twenty-five years, at the penitentiary at Huntsville. Hardin served part of his term and then was pardoned. In an El Paso saloon Hardins life as a feared desperado ended. Shot by a lawman.

Bill was an active Mason or Freemason, and worked on their projects. The school system of Comanche was established in early 1871. The Police Court organized the county into five school districts on 30 January 1871. At the same time the Police Court was acting, Comanche Masonic Lodge No. 316 was also preparing for the education of Comanche's youth. In the spring of 1871 the lodge purchased ground for the building of a school, and the following spring construction was begun. The building was occupied in the fall of 1872. The first board of trustees, all members of Comanche Lodge No. 316 was composed of J.M. Holmsley, Albert Sowell, P.W. Gravis, Nathan Yarbrough, and James G. Hardin. It was Peter Gravis that was the connecting link between the Masonic Lodge and the county in establishing education in Comanche.

Thanks to the love, care and hard work of Margrett and Bill, except for three children who died young, the rest of their children grew up to be good citizens, married, had children of their own to carry on the Ham line.

Bill (William Alexander Ham, Sr.) died 21 October 1893, in Comanche, Comanche County, Texas not far from the home he craved out of the old West. He had gone into the woods or forest to cut wood for the family use, just like he had done so many times before. When in three days he hadn't returned home, a search party was formed to look for him. It was feared that something bad had happened to him. He was found leaning against a tree trunk, where he had leaned to rest from his labors, Bill died of a heart attack. He was carried back home, and then buried at the Suggs Cemetery, not far from the family farm.

Margrett lived in her home that Bill had built for her for years after his death. However, Margrett showed up in the 1910 census living in the home of her oldest son, John, in De Leon, Comanche County, Texas. When her son, George Dallas Ham sold his home and land to his brother, John in about 1914, and moved to Delwin, on Buck Creek, near Paducah, Cottle County, Texas, Margrett went with the family. There she lived out her life, dying on 01 January 1916. George took his mother back home to Comanche by train, and buried her beside her husband of 41 years.

* Sometime before the couples first daughter Margrett/Mary Josephine Ham was born they had moved tond built their home, a log cabin along the Sweetwater creek. Here in the wilderness Bill + Margaret raised their eleven children.

Hi Willie,

I don't think Kathy called your sister b d Mary must have called MaryAlice. Yes, it is true B er 31, 2009. Seven or eight months ago we heard d was going to start chemo/radiation treatments. We were doing some good and Bob was feeling so much be ago we heard that Bob was losing a lot of weigh ondering
why. So, they took Bob into the hospital pread to his liver and there was no chance of any ely turned him over to hospice care and then on December 31st we got the call from George Sunga that Bob had passed away. It's a terrible loss to all of us who knew Bob. He was so lovable and such a kind person. We can only be thankful that he didn't have to suffer with this cancer for a long time. Bob was only 77 years of age--much too young and much too vibrant of a person to pass away now.

They are going to have a memorial service for Bob aboard the Midway (a ship that Bob was extremely active with) on January 14th. Don't know the time yet. George Sunga is going to speak and I don't know who else will but there is sure to be a huge crowd for Bob had so many friends. There will be a family only burial later.

We lost too many of our classmates in 2009--to lose even one is too many but we lost several. Our most recent ones, besides Bob, are Ed Brown, Hugo Manriquez, Mary Campos, June Hom.

If I hear any additional info, I will let you know.

A Brief History of General Palmer, Glen Eyrie, and The Navigators

1836 17 September - William Jackson Palmer born in Kent County, Delaware, of Quaker parents.

1867 Palmer traverses Colorado as a railroad surveyor.

THE ESTATE

Glen Eyrie began as the estate of William Jackson Palmer, founder of several railroads and the city of Colorado Springs. He was born in Delaware, then raised in Pennsylvania in a Quaker home. As a young boy, his fascination with steam locomotives spurred him on to learn all he could about rail travel. At age 17, Palmer went to work for the engineering corps of the Hempfield Railroad. At 19, endorsed by a letter from J. Edgar Thomson, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and other influential friends, he traveled to England and France to study railroading and coal mining. In July 1856, upon his return, he became Thomson's private secretary. With the onset of the Civil War, his railroad career was interrupted.

Although his Quaker upbringing made Palmer abhor violence, his passion to see the slaves free compelled him to enter the war. In 1862, Palmer raised up an elite troop of cavalry, called the Anderson Troop, to join the Union forces. Because of his leadership, his troop was expanded to the size of a regiment, the 15th Pennsylvania Cavalry. Leading reconnaissance early in the war, Palmer was captured and imprisoned as a suspected spy, then later released in a prisoner exchange. Upon returning to his troop, he led one successful campaign after another, eventually being given the responsibility of a cavalry brigade. At age 29 he became the second youngest brigadier general commissioned in the Civil War, second only to General Custer. Although highly decorated, at the end of the war Palmer chose military discharge to pursue his first love, the railroad.

General Palmer began his journey west in 1867 with a survey party of the Union Pacific Railroad, Eastern Division. Their mission was to find the best route to California from Kansas City. Although Union Pacific did not complete this plan, General Palmer would remember the idea. Two years later the Eastern Division of the Union Pacific became the Kansas Pacific Railroad. General Palmer was elected as one of its directors in charge of railroad construction to extend the line to Denver. As he scouted the eastern face of the Rockies for the best route, he was most in awe of the magnificent vistas around Pike's Peak. On one of his survey journeys in this area, he discovered a beautiful valley approxi-mately four miles north of Colorado City and just north of Garden of the Gods. It was here General Palmer would build his estate and begin his family with the woman who had become queen of his heart, the beautiful Mary Lincoln Mellen.

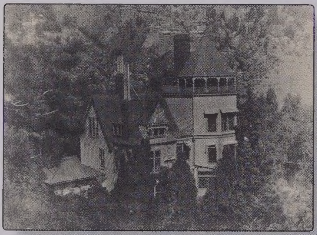
1869 Palmer, engaged in the Kansas Pacific Railroad, visits the future site of Colorado Springs and determines he would like to live in the area.

1870 Palmer purchases land from the Government for most of the city, at $1.25 an acre.

1871 - Palmer begins construction of large adobe and wood house, painted bronze green (22 rooms).

1872 - The Palmers move into their completed adobe and wood house.

1879 - Mr. Drinkwater, the plumber, "has just finished a most complete system of waterworks . . . with three fountains."

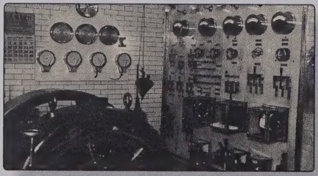


1881 Remodeling of the first house, still in wood. Mr. Blair "is building arched stone bridges at intervals."

1882 - D.C. electric current comes to the Glen.

1883 - Palmer resigns as President of Denver & Rio Grande Railroad.

1902 - Gardener's House, also known as Ridgeview, built. Two large Lord & Burnham greenhouses attached.



1904 Power house started, now known as The Plant. Contained two vertical coalfired water-tube Babcock & Willcox boilers, 100hp each, connected through Chuse engines to D.C. generators.

Palmer's bride was the daughter of William Proctor Mellen, one of General Palmer's business associates. She had been given the nickname "Queen" by her maternal grandmother, an endearment that Palmer continued to use throughout their life together. She and General Palmer married in 1870 and went to England on a four-month honeymoon. The General told her of the beauty of Colorado and promised his bride the grandest of homes. First, he purchased 10,000 acres at $1.25 per acre to establish the Fountain Colony, the town that later became known as Colorado Springs. An additional 2,225 acres were purchased in the beautiful valley he had found near Garden of the Gods, where he began the construction of their estate. After building a large carriage house, where the family lived for a time, Palmer and Queen built a 22-room frame house. This house was remodeled in 1881 to include a tower and additional rooms. They later planned to turn the home into a castle. The estate was often referred to as "Little Garden of the Gods" by local residents for its amazing outcroppings of red sandstone similar to its neighbor.

To improve the grounds, General Palmer secured the services of a noted Scottish landscape architect, John Blair, from Chicago. As they were surveying the grounds, Blair looked up to see an eagle's nest high in the cleft of a rock and in his best Scottish brogue said, "Ah, Glen Eyrie. Valley of the eagle's nest." The General and Queen liked the name and officially named the estate Glen Eyrie. In 1871, the same year he began the Fountain Colony, General Palmer and William Bell founded the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad to run along the Front Range of the Rockies as a north-south route. In the 1880s Palmer added the Rio Grande Western Railroad, using a narrow gauge track to wind through the mountains in an east-west route.

Things flourished for the Palmers for a time, in business and at home. The Fountain Colony grew to 1500 residents in two years, the railroad prospered, and the General and Mrs. Palmer had three daughters, Elsie, Dorothy, and Marjory. The first ripples of challenge began in the later 1870s in a rail war with the Santa Fe Railroad over the mountain routes. Also in 1880, Mrs. Palmer suffered a mild heart attack and was advised to move to a lower altitude. She and the girls moved to the East Coast and then to England where General Palmer visited them as often as he could. Queen died on December 28, 1894, at the age of 44. In sorrow, General Palmer went to England to return Mrs. Palmer's remains and the girls to Colorado Springs.

The General remembered the promise he made to his wife concerning their home and began plans to remodel the house into the Castle we use today. Construction began in 1904 and was completed within two years. During the time of construction, General Palmer and his daughters traveled throughout Europe seeking fireplaces, artifacts and heirlooms to fill the completed castle. The stones for the exterior, brought in from the Bear Creek area, had the appearance of being very old, as Palmer had insisted. The window casings and doorways were of Indiana limestone, shipped in by rail. The engraving on the lintel of the entrance door was the General's creed regarding visitors. It reads, "We should a guest love while he loves to stay, and when he likes not, give him loving way."

The estate was kept in superb condition by a host of servants including an Italian butler, a British valet, Swiss dairyman and dairymaids, a chef, a Chinese launderer, lawn keepers, and many others with special talents. DC current had supplied electricity to the estate since 1882. The castle had telephones, some of the first in the west. Guests arrived through electric gates. A gardener grew flowers and vegetables in two hothouses, as well as a spectacular rose garden. One of the first milk pasteurizing plants in the US was installed in the creamery. The estate enjoyed many other luxuries unknown to its time.

General Palmer was an excellent horseman and loved to ride over the many miles of trails at Glen Eyrie where he could go through electrically controlled gates operated by batteries. He often joined guests on these trails and in the Garden of the Gods. In 1906, on a ride with his daughters and a friend in the Garden of the Gods, he rode an unfamiliar horse that stumbled and threw him to the ground. He suffered a broken neck and was paralyzed from the third rib down. Though immobile, the General continued to entertain children and give generously to the community until his death on March 13, 1909, at the age of 72. At that time the estate was valued at $3,000,000.

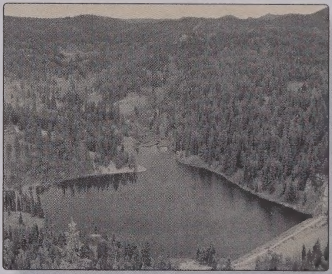
After Palmer's death, his two older daughters moved to England, Elsie to marry an Englishman and Dorothy to become a social worker. Marjory married Henry Watt, the resident doctor of Glen Eyrie, and moved from the Glen to Colorado Springs to open a tubercular clinic, as Marjory herself suffered from the disease. The girls offered the estate to the city, but it was too expensive to maintain. The estate was sold in 1916 to a group of Oklahoma businessmen who called themselves the Glen Eyrie Companies. They paid $150,000 for the property, planning to use it as a private resort and country club, complete with an 18-hole golf course. The carriage house became The Black Horse Tavern (the name probably taken from General Palmer's black horse Señor). The castle was to be used as the clubhouse and the Glen was in fact platted into 150 home sites. Architectural sketches exist for several of the luxury homes.

World War I, however, was at its height, and people were not interested in the cost of having a home at a private country club. Due to the lack of sales, these Oklahoma businessmen were delighted with an offer from Alexander Smith Cochran to purchase the estate for $450,000. Mr. Cochran, a multi-millionaire rug manufacturer from New York, also purchased the Douglas, Lansing, Austin, Newton, and Fairley Ranches north of Glen Eyrie. In 1922, fearing the consequences of a divorce, Cochran transferred ownership of Glen Eyrie to his holding company, the Hillbright Corporation. In 1925, he built the Pink House and closed the Castle. In August 1927, the estate was put up for auction in two parcels. For Parcel One, Glen Eyrie and the ranchland to the south, the bid was $250,000. Parcel Two included the ranchland to the north with a bid of $50,000. The high bidder was Harold Lumberg, a New York attorney. He did not close within the sixty days allowed, however, and the estate remained with the Hillbright corporation. Mr. Cochran died in 1929 and Glen Eyrie remained on the market until 1938, when it was purchased by George W. Strake, an independent oil producer from Houston, Texas. He used Glen Eyrie as a summer home and cattle ranch, and added two wings to the Pink House where his family lived while at Glen Eyrie. In 1950 the estate again was placed on the market, this time for $500,000.

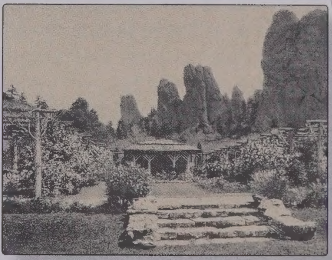
In 1953, a Colorado Springs real estate broker contacted Reverend Billy Graham about the estate, since Graham was looking for a headquarters for his ministry. When Mr. Strake heard that Graham was considering the property, the price was lowered to $300,000, plus $40,000 for furnishings. Dawson Trotman, founder of The Navigators and responsible for counselor training and follow-up for the Billy Graham Crusades, saw the property and told Graham, "If you don't want Glen Eyrie, The Navigators do." Graham first wanted The Navigators to headquarter at Glen Eyrie and maintain it, but later withdrew from the negotiations with the provision that Navigators would take over the option to purchase the estate. At the time, the Navigators had no money and no benefactors. Miraculously, however, a down payment of $110,000 was raised in six weeks, the average donation being $20! Billy Graham said it all by exclaiming, "God did it!" As a last gesture of good will, George Strake included more than 300 acres adjoining the mountain reservoir at the head of Queen's Canyon. This property is now Eagle Lake Camp and is used by The Navigators for a summer camping ministry.

1904 Castle started - the old house of 22 rooms is totally dismantled except for central chimney, but the same floor plan is followed.

1906 Palmer severely injured by a fall from his horse Schoolboy, and purchases an electric automobile, then a White Steamer open touring car.



Palmer Reservoir, now known as Eagle Lake, completed at a cost of $23,000 . . . still in use, capacity 38 million gallons.



Building of the Rose Arbor with dwarf roses, pergolas, summer house, sun dial in center.

1916 - Glen Eyrie Companies purchase the Glen; represented by Ed Dunn and Walter R. Eaton and known as the Oklahoma Syndicate. The Glen to be used as a Resort.

1929 - Thomas Ewing, Cochran's nephew is willed Glen Eyrie . . . but also died. His heirs had no interest. The estate degenerated.

The Glen Eyrie Group is the camp and conference ministry of The Navigators, an international, non-denominational Christian organization. The Navigators began in 1933 in Long Beach, California, as an outgrowth of one man's life, Dawson Trotman. Trotman was hungry for God and found Him revealed in the Bible. The more he learned of God, the more he wanted to share what he found with others—anyone who would listen. He worked regularly with military staff, beginning with naval personnel, teaching them to navigate through life and help others to do so—hence the name "Navigators." One eager learner brought a friend to meet Daws, asking Trotman to teach him, too. Trotman told the man to start sharing with his friend, himself, the things he had learned. Thus began, the Navigator emphasis on spiritual reproduction, transmitting the gospel through generations. This principle is illustrated on Paul's instructions to Timothy, "And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable men who will also be qualified to teach others." (2 Tim.2:2 NIV)

To help keep people faithful in their pursuit of God, Trotman thought up simple ways to save time. He put Bible memory verses on little cards that could be carried in a pocket and referred to in spare times like waiting in lines or at traffic lights. He developed simple booklets and pamphlets that were easy and fun, yet beneficial to spiritual growth. Many conferences spread the impact of this ministry. The Navigators also chose the motto, "To know Christ and to make Him known."

As the first Navigators got out of the military, went home, and attended college, they became scattered around the country. Daws felt it necessary to shift The Navigators headquarters from California to an area more central in the United States. He thought this shift would make it more convenient and less expensive to keep ongoing contact with those who wanted to help others. He was unsure, however, of where to go.

In 1951, Dawson Trotman and The Navigators took on the responsibility for counselor training and follow-up for the Billy Graham Crusades. Two years later, Trotman described Glen Eyrie to Billy Graham as an ideal site for ministry. It was comprised of large buildings with plenty of acreage for expansion, more than ideal with its attractive landscaping, quality buildings rich in history, and spacious rooms for people to gather in. It was also a wonderful place to spend time alone with God in the natural environment. When Graham later backed out of the purchase, he urged The Navigators to pursue it for their ministry. Trotman's fourfold purpose for this estate was: (1) an international headquarters for The Navigators; (2) a year-round training program; (3) a conference center; and (4) a place for Christian leaders of other organizations to gather for fellowship and prayer.

Navigators are called to advance the Gospel of Jesus and His Kingdom into the nations through spiritual generations of laborers. For more than 70 years Navigators have helped people navigate spiritually, helping individuals come to know Christ personally, grow in faith, prayer and knowledge of Scripture, and impart the knowledge of Christ to others. Internationally, more than 3,800 Navigator staff of 60 nationalities minister in over 100 countries and 160 languages.

Fundraiser supports eye-care programs

The Dominion Post

If expectant mothers don't get enough vitamin A during their pregnancy, it could cause their children to be born blind, Dr. Jay Reddy said.

Most third-world countries don't have vitamin A available for their expectant mothers, he said, and it costs less than $1 to provide them with the amount they need.

The Eye Foundation of America is hosting a fundraiser Oct. 3 to support programs that treat vitamin A deficiencies or provide eye screenings to children living in underprivileged areas.

"When you give a child eyesight, it's like giving them a whole new life," Reddy, president of the Eye Foundation of America, said. "That's a great reason for people to come out and show their support."

The fundraiser will be from 3-7 p.m. at the Forks of Cheat Winery Pavilion, 2811 Stewartstown Road.

Kelly Nix, who assists the foundation with organizing events, said people who attend the fundraiser will get to sample award-winning wines and hors d'oeuvres.

Singer Karen Bright will provide the evening's entertainment, Nix said.

The fundraiser is sponsored by BB&T Bank, Forks of Cheat Winery, KLM Properties, The Dominion Post and Voyagers Restaurant.

Sept. 25 is the last day to get tickets for the event.

During last year's fundraiser, $750,000 was donated to the foundation.

The Eye Foundation of America was founded by Morgantown ophthalmologist Dr. V.K. Raju about 30 years ago, Reddy said.

The nonprofit organization is dedicated to correcting preventable blindness and providing adequate eye care to the underprivileged areas of the world.

FOR TICKETS to the annual Eye Foundation of America Fundraiser, call Donna at (304) 598-0055, or e-mail her at eyefoundationofamerica@mail.wvdsl.net. The suggested donation for tickets is $100 per couple. Anyone who can't attend the fundraiser, but would like to make a donation, can mail a check to the Eye Foundation of America, 3140 Collins Ferry Road, Morgantown, WV 26505.

Elizabeth Wilkes DNA Circle BETA

16 members • 6 matches

Introducing DNA Circles! DNA Circles are the latest way for you to discover who you're related to. Circles are created around a particular ancestor and everyone in a circle has DNA evidence that links them to you or someone else in the group. It's a great way to discover cousins you never knew you had. Learn More

You could be related to Elizabeth Wilkes

Your DNA matches the DNA of members of the Elizabeth Wilkes DNA Circle. Because of this, there is a good chance (up to 70%) you could be either a descendant or relative of Elizabeth Wilkes. (learn more)

How it works:

- ✓ Circle members share DNA with other members of the circle.
- ✓ Circle members all have family tree evidence that they are direct descendants of Elizabeth Wilkes.
- ✓ Your DNA matches some or all members of this DNA Circle.

Circles are created around a particular ancestor and everyone in a circle has DNA evidence that links them to you or someone else in the group. It's a great way to discover cousins you never knew you had. Learn More

You could be related to Elizabeth Wilkes

Your DNA matches the DNA of members of the Elizabeth Wilkes DNA Circle. Because of this, there is a good chance (up to 70%) you could be either a descendant or relative of Elizabeth Wilkes. (learn more)

How it works:

- ✓ Circle members share DNA with other members of the circle.
- ✓ Circle members all have family tree evidence that they are direct descendants of Elizabeth Wilkes.
- ✓ Your DNA matches some or all members of this DNA Circle.

Added by: Helen Barnhill

In March, 1814, General Andrew Jackson mobilized the Tennessee Militia, made up of Volunteers from the East and West Tennessee Militia and the Thirty-Ninth U.S. Infantry for a full-scale campaign against the Red Sticks (the Upper Creek). General Jackson's army totaled about 3,000 men, including Lower Creek, Cherokee and Chocktaw.

Jackson's army left Fort Williams on the Coosa River (Mississippi Territory) and marched 52 miles through the forest in three days. They made camp six miles north of Horseshoe Bend. The Red Stick's had built a barricade on the river, which eventually trapped them once Jackson's soldiers surrounded them.

Over 800 Red Sticks died as a result of the Battle of Horseshoe Bend. It is considered part of the War of 1812. General Jackson's dead included 47 Americans, and 23 Native Americans. Jackson's dead, including Nicholas Gibbs Jr, and the wounded were taken back to Fort Williams. Nicholas Gibbs, Jr was a Captain.

Dearmore ancestry

Hello, I'm related to William J Dearmore. My grandfather was Maynard Dearmore &amp; my father was Earl O. I did the DNA &amp; found no Indian in me, however we were told all our life that we had a Great, Great Grandmother that was Cherokee. It sounds like it could be true after reading that article. Can you share any information with me. I am new to this &amp; just getting started. My name is Vicki Dearmore. My dad was born inMountain Home Arkansas. Would love to chat with you &amp; see if we are related. Hope to hear from you.
